Mrs. Ellsworth M. Statler, widow of the School's principal benefactor, enters the door of Statler Inn to attend the annual Hotel Ezra Cornell. Her entrance marks the opening of a series of receptions, dinners, lectures, and exhibits—all planned for guests invited from the hotel and restaurant industry.

The School's Committee on Admissions meets frequently to make a careful selection of student applicants, whose requests have first been screened by the University's Admissions Office. (Left to right) Professors Eben S. Reynolds and Thomas W. Silk, Assistant Dean Gerald W. Lattin, Dean Robert A. Beck, David C. Dunn, and Clinton L. Rappole.

CORRESPONDENCE CONCERNING . . .

The academic requirements for admissions (see pages 91-92) should be addressed to the Office of Admissions, Edmund Ezra Day Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

The personal requirements for admission (see page 93), specifically regarding interviews, should be addressed to the Dean, School of Hotel Administration, Statler Hall.

The program of the School, the content of courses, the requirements for graduation, and questions of financial aid to students should be addressed to the Dean, School of Hotel Administration, Statler Hall.

Credit against the practice requirement should be addressed to the Chairman, Practice Committee, Statler Hall.

Cornell University

SCHOOL OF HOTEL ADMINISTRATION

In 1922, at the request of the American Hotel Association, a four-year program of instruction in the field of hotel administration, the first of its kind anywhere, was established at Cornell University. Later, at the request of the National Restaurant Association, a program designed especially to meet the needs of prospective restaurateurs was offered. Members of both Associations have provided financial support, have found places in their organizations for students and graduates, and have on many occasions endorsed the curriculum.

The principal benefactor has been the late Ellsworth Milton Statler, creator of Statler Hotels. During his lifetime Mr. Statler gave generously. His heirs continued the support until the establishment, under his will, of the Statler Foundation, and the Foundation has been generous indeed.

The Trustees of the Statler Foundation, Mrs. Statler, Mr. Ward B. Arbury, Mr. E. H. Letchworth, Mr. Frank A. McKowne, and Judge Michael J. Montesano, donated $2,550,000 to erect and equip a building to house the School, Statler Hall, which was completed in 1950. A new wing housing a larger library, additional laboratory facilities, and the 900-seat Alice Statler Auditorium has been completed at a cost of $2,300,000. The whole structure offers unequalled facilities for instruction in hotel and restaurant management. To provide for the adequate maintenance of the building, the Foundation has also donated an endowment of $1,250,000. These and other gifts, in support of the E. M. Statler Professorship, of research, and of publications, constitute a total of well over $7,000,000.

Other generous benefactors have supplied the impressive array of scholarships listed on pages 113-122, thereby extending endorsement and encouragement to the School and financial assistance to the students.

STATLER HALL

Statler Hall is a unique educational building, designed expressly to meet the needs of the faculty and the students of the School of Hotel Administration. The building is in three parts: a classroom section, a practice inn, and an auditorium with full stage facilities.

The classroom section, a substantial five-story building with 100,000 square feet of space, is augmented by about 50,000 square feet of additional office, classroom, and laboratory space in the air-conditioned Alice Statler wing. For instruction and research in hotel and restaurant subjects, these two sections provide nineteen lecture rooms, forty-one offices, six auditoriums, and fourteen laboratories, all designed and equipped with the latest mechanical and instructional devices. Students also have their own lounge with a fireplace, multichannel television, radio, and serving pantry.

The School's library, the most extensive of its kind anywhere, numbers about 11,000 volumes on hotel and restaurant operation and related subjects, including the files of leading serial publications in the hotel field, some complete from their first issues, others dating back to the founding of the School. The library has been the recipient of many gifts of display materials and personal collections. Among them are the Herndon collection of 1,600 books, including many rare items; the J. O. Dahl Memorial Library; the books of W. I. Hamilton; the "Oscar of the Waldorf" (Oscar Tschirky) collection of autographed dinner menus and memorabilia; the Pinco collection of menus, dating back to the early 1900's; and the Vehling collection of rare books and prints (about 500 of each) depicting the history of food and its cookery, the latter a personal gift from Mrs. Statler.

Statler Inn, the practice inn, contains thirty-six transient rooms, each with private bath, designed and decorated in the most modern and efficient manner, a front office desk, and appropriate lounge areas. Its facilities constitute a laboratory, and its activities constitute the exercises for front office practice and for instruction in room and registration procedures.

Statler Inn has also a formal dining room seating about 200, five private dining rooms seating from eight to 100, two self-service dining rooms for 100 to 150, a cocktail lounge, and a ballroom seating nearly 400. Several commodious kitchens containing a complete array of modern, stainless steel equipment serve these dining rooms and constitute practice laboratories for the students.

The food and beverage operations of the Inn provide the students of restaurant management abundant outlets for practical experience in the preparation and service of food, wines, and liquors in all types of dining rooms, from self-service cafeterias and buffets to French service.

Students in hotel and restaurant engineering have the facilities and equipment of the Statler Inn available for field study. The accounting records of its operation provide the basis for class exercises in the accounting courses. The problems of personnel management and human relations that arise in the day-by-day operation of the Inn become case studies in the courses in hotel administration. The School is most fortunate in being able to develop for its students a close and intimate relationship between theoretical and practical instruction through the use of Statler Inn.

HISTORY OF THE SCHOOL

The School began, in 1922, as a department organized in the then School of Home Economics of the New York State College of Agriculture. After years of valued assistance from and close cooperation with the faculty of Home Economics, the erstwhile department became the School of Hotel Administration in 1950 and in 1954 was separated from the State Colleges to become a completely independent academic unit within the University, a college in its own right with its own faculty and dean.

A single professor met with a class of twenty-one in 1922. The intervening forty-four years have seen a gradual expansion in the faculty, the curriculum, the student body, and the alumni organization. The School now has a full-time resident faculty of twenty. These twenty devote themselves exclusively to the development of the specialized courses offered by the School and to the instruction of its students. They are fully trained in both the academic and the practical aspects of their respective fields. They are experienced in hotel and restaurant work, and many of them are active consultants to nationally important hotel and restaurant organizations.

The work of the resident Hotel School faculty is supplemented by the services of sixteen other persons who offer specialized courses. Many of them active hotel or restaurant executives, lawyers, accountants, or experts in advertising or human relations, they come to Ithaca from New York or Chicago at weekly intervals to bring, for study and discussion in the classroom, the current problems of their daily work.

Altogether the School offers some 77 courses, totaling 193 hours, that have been developed by the School and designed expressly to meet the needs of its students. In addition, students have access without restriction to courses offered by all the other colleges of the University — courses of professional and of cultural value — and they are guided and stimulated to tap generously the tremendous educational resources of a great University.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

Any program of higher education has two major responsibilities to its students: (1) to fit them for effective work in the economic society of the future in order that each may justly claim from that society a reasonable standard of living; and (2) to provide them with an adequate cultural background against which to perceive the values in and enjoy the living so earned. These requirements are met in formal education for the business of hotel or restaurant operation. These businesses provide good opportunities for well-trained persons, and preparation for work in them involves the study of so wide a variety of subject matter as to approximate a liberal education.

The hotel or the restaurant is a complex institution; its operation calls for a wide range of skills, for the use of a variety of products in a large number of processes. The guest must be received with cordiality

The "little board" in Statler Hall is maintained by classes in Hotel Engineering. Each sophomore makes a hypothetical "growth" investment in October, at which time he explains the reason for his choice. In May he explains the actions he has taken since the time of his original investment.

and service; he must be provided with a well-lighted, tastefully decorated, comfortably furnished room in which the temperature is ideal; and served with appetizing, wholesome food wisely bought, properly stored, and skillfully prepared. He must have at his disposal conveniences of every type: check rooms, public spaces, communication systems, radios, television, and exhibition spaces.

A curriculum adequate to prepare one for the direction of those operations and for the provision of those services and equipments must draw upon nearly every branch of human knowledge. As a consequence, the prospective hotel operator studies drawing, physics, bacteriology, sanitation, chemistry, biology, engineering, vegetable crops, meat products, dietetics, food preparation, textiles, decoration, law, psychology, personnel management, advertising, and public speaking, all in addition to the subjects ordinarily studied in preparation for business management.

Each subject is approached by the student with the same focusing interest: How does this material relate to hotel and restaurant operation? Breadth of training is obtained without dissipation of interest. The graduate should be a well-educated and a socially useful individual.

School of Hotel Administration

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

Except for some general University courses regularly taken by students in the School of Hotel Administration and included in the list for their convenience, all the courses described herein are arranged and given by the Hotel School faculty especially for hotel students; in many cases they are taught by active hotel or restaurant executives. Many other courses are open as electives to hotel students: courses in the sciences; in communication, language, and literature; in economics, history, and government; in music, aesthetics, and philosophy; in engineering, architecture, medicine, and law. For full information regarding these latter offerings reference may be made to the Announcements of the other colleges and schools of the University.

ACCOUNTING

The entire fourth floor of the school section of Statler Hall, eight laboratories and nine offices, is set aside for the exclusive use of the Department of Hotel Accounting. The lecture rooms and laboratories are furnished and equipped with a complete inventory of hotel office and computing machinery. Hotel students also have access to a complete set of I.B.M. statistical machines, including an 80-column and a 40-column tabulating machine as well as sorting, coding, and verifying machines.

ACCOUNTING (Hotel Accounting 81)

Credit four hours. Required. Professor Silk.

Provides an introduction to the principles of general accounting. Practice includes elementary problems developing the theory of accounts. Emphasis is placed on the adjusting journal entries, the work sheet, financial statements, special journals, the operation of control accounts and the voucher register.

MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING (Hotel Accounting 82)

Credit four hours. Required. Prerequisite, Hotel Accounting 81 or the equivalent. Associate Professor Reynolds.

Application of the principles of accounting to several types of public-hospitality business concerns. Major emphasis is on accounting system building with the purpose of analysis of financial statements as a basis of managerial decisions. Use is made of the Uniform System of Accounts for Restaurants as adopted by the National Restaurant Association. Practice work includes accounting for payroll and payroll taxes, depreciation, and periodic adjusting and closing entries.

BASIC HOTEL ACCOUNTING (Hotel Accounting 181)

Credit four hours. Required. Prerequisite, Hotel Accounting 81 and 82. Professor Cladel.

A study of the Uniform System of Accounts for Hotels as recommended by the American Hotel Association. Accounting for the transactions of a 400-room transient hotel. Study of front-office routine, the night audit and transcript, the daily report, and the duties of the accountant. Practice with the special journals used in hotels — the six-column journal and the multi-column operating ledger. The problem involves the recording of the transactions for one month, the summarization, adjustment, and closing of the books, and the preparation of monthly and annual statements therefrom.

16 ACCOUNTING

INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING (Hotel Accounting 182)

Credit four hours. Required. Prerequisite, Hotel Accounting 81. Professor Cladel.

Problems arising in the field of intermediate accounting. Practice includes problems dealing with single entry accounting; partnership organization, operation and dissolution; corporation accounts and records; branch accounting; accounting for manufacturing concerns; and interpretation of financial statements.

AUDITING (Hotel Accounting 183)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Prerequisite, Hotel Accounting 182. Professor Cladel.

The work of the independent public accountant. Practice includes the preparation of audit work papers, internal control in general, and preparation of the auditor's report.

FOOD AND BEVERAGE CONTROL (Hotel Accounting 184)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Professor Cladel.

A study of the various systems of food and beverage control, and precost control common in the business. Practice is offered in cost analysis, sales analysis, special-item control, and adjustments to inventory; in the preparation of the daily report and summary to date; and in the preparation of monthly food and beverage reports using figures typical of a moderate-sized hotel.

SEMINAR IN FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT (Hotel Accounting 285)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Limited to seniors. Best taken after Hotel Accounting 186. Mr. Lesure.

Financial problems associated with the purchase, expansion, and construction of public housing, feeding, and recreational facilities in a typical community are studied and discussed. Phases include purchasing a business, planning and constructing facilities, preparation and use of special reports, private versus public financing, bankruptcy, reorganization, consolidation, and taxation.

INTERPRETATION OF HOTEL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Hotel Accounting 186)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Prerequisite, Hotel Accounting 181 and 182. Mr. Lesure.

A study and discussion of hotel balance sheets, profit and loss statements, and typical hotel balance sheet and operating ratios.

A data processing class learns how to wire boards for programs designed for hotel accounting. Basic research in data processing for hotels was worked out by the School's Research Section under the direction of Prof. C. I. Sayles, the course instructor.

INTERNAL CONTROL IN HOTELS (Hotel Accounting 286)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Open to seniors and graduates and to certain others by permission. Prerequisite, Hotel Accounting 181. Dr. Barrett.

Discussion of the problems encountered in distributing the accounting and clerical work in hotels so as to provide a good system of internal control. Study of many actual cases of the failure of internal control and the analysis of the causes of the failure. Practical problems and actual techniques of functioning systems of internal control.

ECONOMICS OF FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT (Hotel Accounting 287)

Credit three hours. Open to seniors by permission of the instructor. Prerequisite, Economics 104. Satisfies economics elective. Associate Professor Reynolds.

An introduction to the methods used to finance an enterprise, including the management of assets and the determination of the needs and sources of funds. By extensive use of case studies, with special emphasis on the financing of hotels, motels, and other types of business in the service industries, the student will develop a basis for determining a suitable return on investment.

ACCOUNTING MACHINES IN HOTELS (Hotel Accounting 288)

Credit one hour. Prerequisite, Hotel Accounting 181 or permission of the instructor. Hotel elective. Mr. Dunn.

Discussion of the place of accounting machines in the hotel front office; practice with a National Cash Register Company front-office posting machine, Model 2000, and Model 42, including the posting of charges and credits and the details of the night audit.

PROBLEMS IN HOTEL ANALYSIS (Hotel Accounting 189)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates.

Practice in some statistical procedures, using as illustrative material principally hotel and restaurant figures; presentation and interpretation; frequency distributions, average, median, mode, and measures of dispersion. Special emphasis is placed on linear correlation and regression.

SPECIAL STUDIES IN ACCOUNTING AND STATISTICS FOR HOTELS (Hotel Accounting 289)

Credit to be arranged. Hotel elective. Prerequisites, Hotel Accounting 186 and 189 or equivalent. Permission of instructors required.

Research projects dealing with advanced accounting statistics and finance in the hotel and restaurant industries.

BASIC FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT (Hotel Accounting 240)

Credit three hours. Open to students outside the School of Hotel Administration. Fall and spring. Associate Professor Reynolds.

An elementary course covering accounting principles, financial statement analysis, investments in stocks and bonds, and income and payroll taxes. Designed for the student who desires a general knowledge of the language of business and finance. Practice work includes developing an accounting system for a small service business, creating and following an investment portfolio, and preparing federal income tax returns for individuals.

ADMINISTRATION

ORIENTATION (Hotel Administration 100)

Credit two hours. Required. Professor Lattin.

Designed to orient students in the life of the University and in the work of the School of Hotel Administration. The laboratory periods in the Statler Club provide students with the opportunity to gain experience in all departments of a hotel.

RESORT MANAGEMENT* (Hotel Administration 113)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective. Mr. Malleison.

A lecture course in the operation of the resort hotel. Consideration is given to the promotion of business, to the provision of services, to the operation of the dining room, to the entertainment of the guest, and to the selection, training, and direction of the employed staff. Resorts of the various types, seasons, and economic levels are considered.

PSYCHOLOGY (Hotel Administration 114)

Credit three hours. Required. Professor Lattin.

A terminal course in basic psychological principles designed to develop in the student an awareness of the psychological aspects of many hotel management functions and to demonstrate the application of psychological principles to these functions. Covers all areas of general psychology.

LABOR-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS IN THE HOTEL INDUSTRY (Hotel Administration 316)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Prerequisite, Economics 104. (This course will satisfy the requirement of elective work in economics, but when so counted it may not also be counted as three hours of Hotel elective.) Professor Beck.

The development of the trade union movement in the United States with special emphasis upon the AFL-CIO union affiliates active in the hotel and food industry. Case studies are included of disputes and grievances arising in unionized hotels and restaurants.

HOTEL-MOTEL SALES MANAGEMENT (Hotel Administration 117)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Mr. Grice and Mr. Berkman.

The hotel sales department — its function, organization, records, procedures, and role in modern hotel operation.

PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION (Hotel Administration 119)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Prerequisite, an elementary course in psychology.

A study of the problems of human relations in industry. A survey of the methods and problems of recruitment, selection, placement, maintenance, organization and government of employees.

SEMINAR IN PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION (Hotel Administration 219)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Prerequisite, Hotel Administration 119 and permission of instructor. Professor Lattin.

* Courses marked with an asterisk are given in alternate years or as the demand requires. Other courses are ordinarily given at least once a year, but in any case offerings are adjusted to the requirements.

20 ADMINISTRATION

A discussion class which provides the opportunity for students to put into practice the theory and techniques learned in the elementary course. Emphasis is placed on understanding and practicing personnel methods which can directly assist in controlling costs of the man-power program.

CLUB MANAGEMENT* (Hotel Administration 222)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates.

A survey of the problems peculiar to the management of city, country, and other club organizations. Subjects covered are food and beverage management in clubs; committee, board of directors, and membership relations; dues, assessment, and financial management. The arrangement and promotion of social and recreational activities are also included.

CONTRACT FOOD SERVICE MANAGEMENT (Hotel Administration 228)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective. Mr. Stark.

An overview of the rapidly developing field of professional contract food management, including the accounting, legal, marketing, sales, production, and personnel functions.

COMMUNICATION (Hotel Administration 238)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Professor Recknagel.

The composition of written messages used in hotels, restaurants, and clubs. Includes the preparation of letters, memorandums, reports, and advertising by mail.

RESTAURANT MANAGEMENT (Hotel Administration 251)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Professor Bernatsky.

An analysis of the principal operating problems in the restaurant field. Procedures, approaches, and techniques of management are explored and developed through case study, lecture, and discussion.

BEVERAGE MANAGEMENT (Hotel Administration 252)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Professor Bernatsky.

Includes a systematic presentation of alcoholic beverages, their history, service, sales, and control. Lectures, demonstrations, and field trips.

SEMINAR IN HOTEL ADMINISTRATION (Hotel Administration 153)

Credit two, three, or four hours. Hotel elective. Open to a limited number of seniors in hotel administration. Those wishing to register should consult the instructor during the preceding semester to obtain permission to enroll and to confer regarding problems chosen for special study. Hours to be arranged. Professor Beck.

SPECIAL STUDIES IN RESEARCH (Hotel Administration 253)

Credit to be arranged. Open to graduate students in Hotel Administration only. Members of the Graduate Faculty.

Designed specifically for graduate students working on theses or other research projects. Any member of the graduate faculty of the School of Hotel

* Courses marked with an asterisk are given in alternate years or as the demand requires. Other courses are ordinarily given at least once a year, but in any case offerings are adjusted to the requirements.

Administration, upon consultation with the student, may be selected to direct a particular problem of special interest to the student.

LECTURES ON HOTEL MANAGEMENT (Hotel Administration 155)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective. Open to all classes. To be taken for credit each semester. Under the direction of Professor Beck.

A series of lectures given by nonresident speakers prominent in the hotel, restaurant, and allied fields.

TOURISM* (Hotel Administration 56)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective.

Given by a representative of one of the large travel and tour directing organizations. Deals with the volume and dollar value of foreign and domestic tourist and business travel, the areas and groups who constitute the source of tourist business, the attractions that draw them, the conveyances and routings they use, and the matters of rates, foreign exchange, and passport and health requirements.

DATA PROCESSING (Hotel Administration 58)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Prerequisites, Hotel Accounting 181, 182.

Deals with the basic principles of automatic data processing, the types of equipment available, and the applications of data processing to hotels and the food industry. Students have the opportunity to work with the system operating in Statler Hall and also to become acquainted with systems operating in large hotels as well as multiple-unit organizations.

INTERNATIONAL HOTEL MANAGEMENT SURVEY (Hotel Administration 64)

Credit to be arranged. Open only to students in the School of Hotel Administration. Assistant Professor Christian.

The purpose is to introduce students to the methods and practices of European hotel management and to make them acquainted with food purchasing and preparation in the countries visited. Before embarking on an eight-week survey trip through Europe, the students attend a series of lectures given by the School's faculty to orient them into the culture, practices, and products of the countries to be visited. Upon their return, the students prepare illustrated written reports.

LAW OF BUSINESS (Hotel Administration 171)

Credit two hours. Required. Open to upperclassmen. Professor Sherry.

A basic course in business law. The student is introduced to the fundamental purposes, principles, and processes of the law as an agency of social control and as it applies to business activities. The topics treated include the origin and development of common, statutory, and constitutional law; the organization and functioning of the judicial system; rights and duties of individuals in regard to each other and society. The acquisition, ownership, and transferability of property, real and personal, decedent's estates, trusts, bankruptcy, and business failures will be treated in some detail. A combination of text and case material is used.

* Courses marked with an asterisk are given in alternate years or as the demand requires. Other courses are ordinarily given at least once a year, but in any case offerings are adjusted to the requirements.

22 ADMINISTRATION

LAW OF BUSINESS (Hotel Administration 271)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Prerequisite, Hotel Administration 171. Professor Sherry.

A continuation of Hotel Administration 171. The Uniform Commercial Code (sales and negotiable instruments) will be emphasized. A combination of text and case material is used.

LAW AS RELATED TO INNKEEPING (Hotel Administration 172)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Best taken after Hotel Accounting 182 and Economics 104. Professor Sherry.

A study of the laws applicable to the ownership and operation of inns, hotels, motels, restaurants, and other places of public hospitality. Consideration of the host's duties to guests, lodgers, boarders, tenants, invitees, licensees, and trespassers; the exclusion and ejection of undesirables; liability for personal injuries on and off the premises; the concept of negligence; liability for damage or loss of property; statutory limitations of liability; lien rights; concession agreements; leases; credit and collection practices; arrest and detention of wrongdoers, and miscellaneous statutes and administrative rules and regulations applicable to public houses. The material is treated from the point of view of the executive responsible for policy and decision making.

LAW OF BUSINESS: CONTRACTS, BAILMENTS, AND AGENCY* (Hotel Administration 272)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Best taken after Hotel Accounting 182 and Economics 104. Professor Sherry.

A study of the formation, validity, enforcement, and breach of contracts; the laws of principal and agent, and employer and employee. The case method is used throughout, supplemented by notes and collateral readings. The aim is to develop skill and experience in analytical thinking as an aid and as a tool in modern managerial technique.

LAW OF BUSINESS: BUSINESS ORGANIZATION, PARTNERSHIPS AND CORPORATIONS* (Hotel Administration 274)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Best taken after Hotel Accounting 182 and Economics 104. Professor Sherry.

A study of the available forms of business organization, with special emphasis on general and limited partnerships and corporations. Comparison of the relative advantages and disadvantages of partnerships and corporations. Consideration of the use of limited partnerships in hotel and motel syndications; corporate promotion; financial devices for raising capital; corporate control and management, and the respective rights, duties, and powers of officers, directors, and stockholders. The aim is to correlate the legal, accounting, taxation, and management aspects of organized business enterprises.

PUBLIC RELATIONS AND SALES* (Hotel Administration 176)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Recommended for juniors and seniors. Mr. Earle.

Methods, approaches, and techniques of developing a favorable image for the hotel, promoting community and guest relations, and counteracting the current downward trend in occupancy figures.

* Courses marked with an asterisk are given in alternate years or as the demand requires. Other courses are ordinarily given at least once a year, but in any case offerings are adjusted to the requirements.

A student in marketing reports an investigation while the instructor, Mr. William Morton, vice president of marketing for Sheraton Hotels Corporation, observes the class's reaction.

MARKETING (Hotel Administration 177)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Mr. Morton.

Basic principles of marketing emphasizing the hotel and restaurant industries. Consideration of the "marketing mix." Case studies, projects, and outside readings will supplement the lectures and text.

HOTEL PROMOTION (Hotel Administration 178)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective. Recommended for upperclassmen. Mr. Koehl.

In addition to basic principles and procedures of hotel promotion, specific emphasis will be placed on tourism and its promotion.

SALES PROMOTION* (Hotel Administration 278)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates.

The hotel sales department—its function, organization, records, and procedures—is discussed.

The course is arranged with the cooperation of the Hotel Sales Management Association. At each session a different member of the Association, chosen by the Association in consultation with the School for his expertness in some one phase of sales promotion, discusses that phase and under the coordination of the instructor leads the discussion of the subject.

* Courses marked with an asterisk are given in alternate years or as the demand requires. Other courses are ordinarily given at least once a year, but in any case offerings are adjusted to the requirements.

HOTEL ADVERTISING* (Hotel Administration 179)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Mr. Grohmann.

The fundamentals of magazine, newspaper, radio, television, and outdoor advertising; direct mail, printed material, and publicity; and the part each plays in a coordinated business promotion program. Detailed discussions are included of the different methods of building business that are being successfully used by various types of hotels and restaurants. The lectures and demonstrations also illustrate the mechanical processes of producing advertising material, giving students a working knowledge of the advantages and disadvantages of each process.

GENERAL SURVEY OF REAL ESTATE* (Hotel Administration 191)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Prerequisite, Economics 104 or its equivalent.

A practical survey of the real estate field covering the economic, legal, and technical aspects of real estate. Lectures and problems cover interests in real property, liens, taxes, contracts, titles, deeds, leases, brokerage, management, and financing. An analysis will be made of the basic investment principles underlying specific types of properties, such as apartment houses, shopping centers, commercial buildings, hotels, and motels.

SEMINAR IN REAL ESTATE FINANCE AND INVESTMENT*
(Hotel Administration 192)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Prerequisite, Economics 104 or its equivalent.

The changing character of the urban economy and its influence upon land values. Case studies of the development of land into specific improvements to generate a stream of investment income. A study of the leverage of financing and how it is used by the entrepreneur.

COMMERCIAL FINANCING (Hotel Administration 291)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Mr. Lazere.

An introductory survey of the historical development, economic function, legal principles, and operational techniques of some credit devices utilized in financing commercial transactions: unsecured bank credit, accounts receivable financing, factoring, inventory financing, interim real estate financing, equipment leasing, conditional sales contracts, import and export financing (letters of credit), and consumer installment sales.

GENERAL INSURANCE (Hotel Administration 196)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Upperclassmen and graduates. Mr. McNeill.

Designed to provide the student with a comprehensive introduction to the insurance field. The emphasis is upon fire insurance, casualty insurance, and multiple peril policies. Such topics are covered as the law of contracts as it relates to insurance; the fire insurance policy and fire insurance forms; business interruption, marine, burglary and crime, and liability insurance; rates and rate making; bonds; negligence and torts; compensation; package policies; adjustment of losses; and the types of insurers.

* Courses marked with an asterisk are given in alternate years or as the demand requires. Other courses are ordinarily given at least once a year, but in any case offerings are adjusted to the requirements.

TYPEWRITING (Hotel Administration 37)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Mrs. Seaburg.

The personal needs of college students are met by this course in elementary typewriting. Instruction is given in the typing of business letters, reports, and tabulations.

SHORTHAND THEORY (Hotel Administration 131)

Credit four hours. Hotel elective. Limited to juniors and seniors. Mrs. Seaburg.

The basic theory of Gregg shorthand is completed in this course, and the groundwork is laid for dictation and transcription. Enrollment in Hotel Administration 132 is waived if the student passes a typewriting proficiency test during the first week of the term.

SECRETARIAL TYPEWRITING (Hotel Administration 132)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Mrs. Seaburg.

Students who already know the keyboard develop sufficient speed and accuracy to meet business standards. Some instruction is also provided in filing, duplication, and machine transcription. Men students learn letter writing and dictation.

SECRETARIAL PROCEDURES (Hotel Administration 138)

Credit four hours. Hotel elective. Prerequisites, Hotel Administration 131 and 132 or the equivalent. Mrs. Seaburg.

Instruction in the major secretarial duties and office management. Dictation and transcription speeds sufficient for the better types of office positions are developed.

PRINCIPLES OF CITY AND REGIONAL PLANNING (Architecture 710)

Credit three hours. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Mr. Kent.

A review of the basic influences in the development of cities. A general view of the theory and accepted practice of city and regional planning, including a study of the social, economic, and legal phases.

MAN AND SOCIETY (Sociology 101)

Credit three hours. Assistant Professor Hayes.

An introduction to the principal questions, perspectives, and methods of sociology. The focus of the course will be upon the processes which maintain the continuity and stability of society and contribute to its change. Detailed analyses will be made of institutions and organizations, socialization and social control. Emphasis will be given to contemporary research in these areas.

ECONOMICS AND FINANCE

Of the large number of courses in economics, statistics, sociology, history, and government open to hotel students, only those frequently taken by them are described here. Full details regarding the others are given in the Announcement of the College of Arts and Sciences. Hours and instructors are to be announced each term.

MODERN ECONOMIC SOCIETY (Economics 103)

Credit three hours. Required. Open to a limited number of freshmen. Professors Adams, Fei, Selden and assistants.

A survey of the existing economic order, with particular emphasis on the salient characteristics of the modern American economy. Concentration is on explaining and evaluating the operation of the price system as it regulates production, distribution, and consumption, and as it is in turn modified and influenced by private organization and government policy.

MODERN ECONOMIC SOCIETY (Economics 104)

Credit three hours. Required. Prerequisite, Economics 103. Professors Morse, Chiang, Kahn, Staller, and assistants.

Economics 104, a continuation of 103, centers on the determinants of aggregate economic activity. The main areas studied are the monetary and banking systems, the composition and fluctuations of national income, and the major conditions of economic growth, all as influenced by monetary, fiscal, and other policies.

FINANCE† (Business And Public Administration 128)

Credit three hours. Open to seniors and graduate students who have taken Economics 104. Permission of the instructor is required. Professors Nilsson and West.

The student is introduced to the principles and practices of finance and to their application in business and public administration. The uses of financial instruments, problems of short-term and long-term capital financing, methods of security distribution, financial expansion and reorganization, and the operation of specialized financial institutions and money and capital markets are surveyed. Considerable attention is given to the methods of financing current operations and to the financial problems of small business. The regulatory aspects of government financial controls are considered.

BUSINESS ENTERPRISE AND PUBLIC POLICY† (Business And Public Administration 202)

Credit three hours. Open to seniors and graduate students who have taken Economics 104. Permission of the instructor is required. Professor Hutchins.

An integrating study of the interrelations among individuals, business firms, and governments in American society. It focuses attention on the problems of exercising socially responsible business leadership and on the nature and objectives of selected public policies impinging on business. The more important topics covered are management and the individual, or the philosophy of the business society; management's responsibilities to the organization, including certain problems of posture and practices; management's relations with rivals, especially problems of monopoly and competition and the antitrust laws; management's responsibilities to customers, particularly with respect to promotional practices; the special responsibilities of those businesses affected with a public interest, such as transportation companies; the unusual problems of managements entrusted with roles in the national defense, especially in connection with radical innovation and technological development; the positions of firms receiving subsidies designed to promote public objectives, such as shipping enterprises; and finally management's role in the foreign relations of the United States, particularly with respect to trade, investment abroad, and foreign policy.

INTERMEDIATE MICROECONOMIC THEORY† (Economics 311)

Credit four hours. Prerequisite, Economics 104. Professors Berki, Chiang, Morse, and Kilpatrick.

Analysis of the pricing processes in a private enterprise economy under varying competitive conditions, their role in the allocation of resources, and the functional distribution of national income.

† Will satisfy the requirement of elective work in economics.

INTERMEDIATE MACROECONOMIC ANALYSIS† (Economics 312)

Credit four hours. Prerequisite, Economics 104 or consent of the instructor. Professors Fleisig, Dill, and others.

An introduction to the theory of national income determination and economic growth in alternative models of the national economy; the interaction and relation of these models to empirical aggregate economic analysis.

PRICES† (Agricultural Economics 315)

Credit three hours. Prerequisite, Economics 103. Open to juniors, seniors, and graduate students. Assistant Professor Tomek.

A study of commodity prices including the economic forces affecting price and the institutional framework within which pricing takes place. This is an applied course with price theory as a guide. Elementary methods of price analysis are discussed.

ECONOMIC HISTORY OF MODERN EUROPE† (Economics 322)

Credit four hours. Prerequisite, Economics 104. Professor Dill.

An examination and analysis of significant processes and relationships in the economic development of Europe from the close of the Middle Ages to the present. Attention will be given to reciprocal relationships between the social and political context and the behavior of the economy over time.

AMERICAN ECONOMIC HISTORY† (Economics 323)

Credit four hours. Prerequisites, Economics 103–104. Assistant Professor Fleisig.

Analysis of the major features of the development of the American economy from the late colonial period to the present. Particular stress will be placed upon the functional relationship between structural changes in the economy and political, demographic, and social variables.

ECONOMICS OF MANAGERIAL DECISIONS† (Agricultural Economics 328)

Credit three hours. Prerequisites, Economics 103 and Hotel Accounting 81 or the equivalent. Associate Professor Aplin.

Emphasis is on identifying problems in a business, recognizing alternatives, and using economic data as guides to making decisions. Principal topics include cost analysis, with emphasis on identifying costs relevant for various decisions within the firm; pricing policies of firms; planning capital investments; and sales forecasting. Class discussion is supplemented by case studies to illustrate concepts and techniques available to management to assist them in making sound decisions. Primary emphasis is on conceptual and qualitative approaches, not on quantitative methods.

MONEY, BANKING, AND PUBLIC POLICY† (Economics 231)

Credit three hours. Prerequisite, Economics 104. Assistant Professor La Pittus.

A study of the American financial system with emphasis on the roles played by commercial banks, the federal reserve system, and selected related financial institutions. Monetary, credit, and financial controls influencing general economic stability are also examined. Primarily for non-majors.

FINANCIAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES † (Economics 333)

Credit four hours. Prerequisites, Economics 104 and three hours of American history. Professor O'Leary.

† Will satisfy the requirement of elective work in economics.

The development of American financial institutions, problems, and legislation from 1650 through 1940. Monetary media, banking systems and operations, public finance, and certain private financial institutions will be examined against the changing background of the American political and economic system.

PUBLIC FINANCE: RESOURCE ALLOCATION† (Economics 335)

Credit four hours. Prerequisite, Economics 104 or consent of instructor. Assistant Professor von Furstenberg.

An analysis of the role of government in allocating resources through taxes and expenditures. Criteria for evaluation will be developed and applied to specific policies. Attention will focus on the federal government.

TAXATION† (Agricultural Economics 338)

Credit three hours. Open to upperclassmen who have taken Economics 104 or the equivalent. Assistant Professor Luykx.

A study of the principles and practices of public finance, with emphasis on taxation. The topics examined include the role of government services and the need for public revenue; factors influencing choice of taxes; and the practices and issues associated with the various taxes on personal and business income, on property, and on commodity transactions.

MARKETING† (Agricultural Economics 240)

Credit three hours. Professor Darrah.

A study of how food products are marketed. Special attention is given to the consumption of food products, factors that affect consumption, market channels, operation of different marketing agencies, storage, transportation, packaging, product identification, advertising and promotion, buying, selling, and costs.

ECONOMICS OF WAGES AND EMPLOYMENT†

(Industrial And Labor Relations 241)

Credit three hours. Prerequisite, Economics 104. Professor Hildebrand and other members of the department.

An introduction to the characteristics of the labor market and to analysis of wage and employment problems. Among topics studied are the composition of the labor force, job-seeking and employment practices, methods of wage determination, theories of wages and employment, economic effects of unions, the nature and causes of unemployment, and programs to combat joblessness and poverty.

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE AND PUBLIC POLICY† (Economics 351)

Credit four hours. Prerequisite, Economics 103-104. Professor Kahn.

The approach to public policy in a private enterprise system in the light of the economist's concepts of competition and monopoly. Economic bases for delineating the public and private sectors and the public regulatory function. An analysis and appraisal of the prevalence and effectiveness of competition in the American economy, with particular emphasis on the business organization; the price, production, and marketing policies; and the economic performance of a range of industries characterized by varying degrees of market concentration and governmental intervention.

† Will satisfy the requirement of elective work in economics.

CORPORATE ENTERPRISE IN THE AMERICAN ECONOMY† (Economics 355)

Credit three hours. Prerequisite, Economics 104. Professor O'Leary.

An examination of the large American business corporation as an economic institution. Attention is given to the corporation as the dominant device for ordering the allocation and administering the use of economic resources in the United States. Among the topics treated are separation of ownership and management; segments of interest; reinvestment of earnings and the savings-investment process; the impact of taxation on basic decisions; the various types of corporation securities; government regulation; the public-benefit corporation as a special case.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE THEORY AND POLICY† (Economics 361)

Credit four hours. Prerequisite, Economics 103-104 or consent of the instructor. Assistant Professor Staller.

Survey of the principles that have served as guides in the formulation of international trade and commercial policies. The evolution of the theory of international trade, principles and practices of commercial policy, problems of regional integration and customs unions, and institutions and practices of state trading will be emphasized.

INTERNATIONAL MONETARY THEORY AND POLICY† (Economics 362)

Credit four hours. Prerequisite, Economics 103-104. Assistant Professor La Pittus.

Survey of the principles that have served as guides in the formulation of international financial policies. The evolution of the theory of balance of payments adjustments, international monetary standards, the nature of conflicts arising out of the relationship between domestic economic policies and external economic relations, international capital movements, economic aid, international monetary institutions, and proposals for international monetary reforms will be emphasized.

PROCESS OF ECONOMIC GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT† (Economics 372)

Credit four hours. Prerequisite, Economics 103-104. Professor Morse.

Consideration of how societies undergo economic growth and institutional change. Developing countries are the main focus of attention, most detailed consideration being given to Africa. Some possibilities of combining elements from economics and other fields to form a broad approach to economic development are explored.

ECONOMIC AND BUSINESS HISTORY† (Business and Public Administration 375)

Credit three hours. Limited to seniors who have completed Economics 103-104. Professor Hutchins.

Evaluation of the economic organization and the business firm therein. The primary emphasis is on the United States since 1750, although some attention is given to earlier times and to European origins and developments. Analysis proceeds in part by means of historical case studies. Attention is paid to the relations between business policies and the rise and fall of firms and industries, and to the interactions of business and public policies.

† Will satisfy the requirement of elective work in economics.

BUSINESS POLICY AND ECONOMIC INSTABILITY† (Business and Public Administration 376)

Credit three hours. Open to seniors who have taken Economics 104. Permission of the instructor is required. Professor de Chazeau.

An examination of theoretical questions and practical issues raised by the formulation and administration of national policies designed to bring about economic stability and high levels of productive employment and to stimulate a satisfactory rate of economic growth. Emphasis is given to the critical components of the gross national product, the nature of business fluctuations, the development and use of various economic indicators in forecasting probable levels of business activity, the ways in which governmental monetary and fiscal policies are developed to induce desired business reactions and economic results, and the institutional factors which facilitate and impede effective performance. Throughout the course problems involving conflicts among basic goals and policies are examined, including those problems which arise in light of balance-of-payments considerations. The requirements of business planning, which condition the responses of the business community, are also noted.

COMPETITIVE BEHAVIOR AND PUBLIC POLICY† (Business and Public Administration 377)

Credit three hours. Open to seniors who have taken Economics 104. Permission of the instructor is required. Professor de Chazeau.

The development and application of the antitrust laws are analyzed and appraised in the light of competitive behavior in imperfect markets significantly affected by the growth of large corporate units and organized self-interest groups. Particular attention is given to changes in market structures, to the definition of the public interest and the formulation of economic standards for measuring the efficiency of business performance in a dynamic society, and to the possibilities of achieving workable competition through the administration of the laws. Problems of regulation, in areas where workable competition cannot be realized, are also studied on a selective basis. The primary focus is on case analyses, and each student is required to deliver a written and an oral report on one or more case situations.

TRANSPORTATION RATES AND REGULATIONS† (Business and Public Administration 575)

Credit three hours. Limited to seniors. Permission of the instructor is required. Prerequisite, Economics 104. Professor Hutchins.

This study of American transportation is focused on economic organization, public policy, and the rate-making process. The emphasis is on the theory and practice of rate making in an environment complicated by fixed, joint, and common costs, by competition among differing modes of transport, and by complex patterns of regulation. Although primary attention is given to railroad economics and policies, other modes are considered from time to time. Cases are used. Among the topics discussed are rates and the location of industry and trade, the theory of rates, the development and current content of United States inland transportation policy, the construction of rate systems, problems in competitive marketing, new types of rates and services, certain detailed problems of regulation, and the complexities of intercarrier relations within a national transportation system.

† Will satisfy the requirement of elective work in economics.

ENGINEERING

For instruction in the field of hotel, motel, and restaurant engineering, Statler Hall has especially designed and equipped lecture rooms, two drafting rooms, and three especially equipped laboratories, all used exclusively for studying, demonstrating, and testing the mechanical equipment and building components typically used in hotels and restaurants. In addition, Statler Hall and other campus buildings are studied from the viewpoint of physical plant management.

A variety of scale models and prints of many actual building floor plans, guest room arrangements, dining room seatings, and kitchen layouts are utilized in the laboratory work on building construction and operation. Engineering equipment includes fire fighting equipment, vacuum cleaners, full-size bathroom units, plumbing fixtures, pipe fitting equipment, pumps driven by electricity and by steam, a hot water heater, ventilating fan equipment, an oil-fired boiler, motor generator sets, alternating and direct current motors, electric control equipment, wiring devices, meters, illumination equipment, and mechanical refrigeration testing units including compressors, condensers, and refrigeration controls. Scale models of kitchen equipment are also used for developing layouts. Plans and specifications, as well as catalogs, are used for supplementary references in hotel and motel planning.

In hotel engineering, a total of 15 hours is the required minimum consisting of five 3-hour courses. Courses in hotel engineering chosen beyond the 15 total required hours may be counted as Hotel electives. The recommended sequence for continuity of instruction is:

	Fall Term	Spring Term
First Year	H.E. 460	H.E. 461
Second Year	H.E. 462	H.E. 463
	Either Term
Third or Fourth Year	H.E. 466, 468, 469 or 266
Fourth Year only (Fall Term)	H.E. 265

Instruction by Professors Broten, Bangs, Chase and by Messrs. Compton, Vail, and assistants.

FUNDAMENTALS OF HOTEL ENGINEERING (Hotel Engineering 460)

Credit three hours. Required.

Basic architectural and mechanical drafting with emphasis on freehand sketching. Interpretation of graphical presentation and technical communication as related to hotel and restaurant problems.

BASIC ENGINEERING MANAGEMENT (Hotel Engineering 461)

Credit three hours. Required.

An objective study of a variety of technical problems in physical plant management, including mathematics of finance as applied to capital physical expenditures. Introduction to architectural and mechanical building problems with emphasis on economic criteria. Slide rule is used throughout the course.

MECHANICAL AND ELECTRICAL PROBLEMS I AND II (Hotel Engineering 462-463)

Credit three hours each term. Prerequisite, Hotel Engineering 461. Must be taken in fall-spring sequence. Required.

A detailed study of the mechanical and electrical work involved in commercial physical plant management. Work includes hydraulic principles, water systems, plumbing and piping, heating, refrigeration, air conditioning, electrical equipment theory and practice. Emphasis is on finding economical solutions to technical problems and coordination of such with architectural, structural, and decorating work in hotel and restaurant facilities.

HOTEL PLANNING (Hotel Engineering 265)

Credit three hours. Limited to seniors and graduates. Prerequisite, 12 hours of hotel engineering or permission of the instructor.

Design of the layout for a proposed hotel, from feasibility study through plans and specifications, emphasizing site solution, floor plans, guest room layouts, and the selection and arrangement of equipment in all of the various departments.

HOTEL STRUCTURES AND MAINTENANCE (Hotel Engineering 266)

Credit three hours. It is suggested that this be taken after Hotel Engineering 463, although students entering the School during the spring term with advanced standing may also register in this course.

Materials and method of building construction, repair, and maintenance. Emphasis is on trade practices, building codes, cost estimation, and management responsibility.

SEMINAR IN HOTEL CONSTRUCTION AND RENOVATION (Hotel Engineering 466)

Credit three hours. Prerequisite, 12 hours of hotel engineering, including either the 400 series and/or 265, 266; Hotel Engineering 266 is highly recommended.

A project course examining in depth the problems related to construction, renovation design, and decor of hotel and restaurant physical plants.

SEMINAR IN HOTEL LIGHTING AND COLOR (Hotel Engineering 468)

Credit three hours. Prerequisites, 12 hours of hotel engineering, including Hotel Engineering 463 or 266 and 265, and the permission of the instructor. This course is offered when there is sufficient demand.

A project course examining in depth the theory and application of light and color to hotel and restaurant situations.

SEMINAR IN HOTEL COMFORT CONDITIONING (Hotel Engineering 469)

Credit three hours. Prerequisites, Hotel Engineering 463, or 263 and 267, and the permission of the instructor. This course is offered when there is sufficient demand.

A project course examining in detail the theory and application of factors contributing to human comfort and discomfort in an away-from-home environment.

CONTRACT INTERIORS (Housing and Design 130)

Credit three hours. Hotel Engineering elective. Prerequisite, Hotel Engineering 463 and good academic standing. Associate Professor Millican.

The space planning, furnishing, and visual aspects of business and commercial interiors such as hotels, motels, public spaces, and specialized areas.

FOOD FACILITIES ENGINEERING

In addition to the general facilities of Statler Hall, the instruction in Food Facilities Engineering has assigned for its exclusive use a large drafting room with extra large tables. Extensive catalog files are maintained covering the wide array of food and beverage service equipment. Numerous prints of layouts, specifications, and photographs of actual projects are studied as examples of fundamental design as well as details customarily given on plans. Samples of fabricated equipment in cross-section illustrate preferred construction methods. The kitchens of Statler Hall and of other campus food facilities provide examples of typical applications.

Especially planned courses dealing with mass feeding start with the first stages of development programing and continue through logical sequence into more advanced and detailed work. The student completing each course in this series gains step-by-step the foundation for planning his own food facility.

Course	Term
F.F.E. 361 Preliminary Programing Analysis, Planning, Design and Engineering	Second to eighth
F.F.E. 362 Equipment Layout and Design	Fourth, sixth, eighth
F.F.E. 363 Food Facilities Engineering, Specifi- cations, Shop Drawings, and Con- tract Supervision	Fifth or seventh

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMING ANALYSIS, PLANNING, DESIGN, AND ENGINEERING (Food Facilities Engineering 361)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Associate Professor Bangs.

Lectures deal with first-stage planning, which must be done by the owner or his consultant in the programing for any project of mass feeding. The many factors which must be programed in order to satisfy all principal objectives are outlined: site selection, market analysis, kind of operation, merchandising program, and surveys to determine the wants and needs of patrons to be served. Also included are research studies to resolve menu requirements, plan for the particular type of service to be employed, create desired atmosphere, program functions of personnel, plan maintenance, analyze administrative objectives, and develop the major prospectus. Pro-forma studies and feasibility research round out the coverage.

Textbooks and laboratory work include: (1) studies of qualitative and quantitative methods of equipment and systems evaluation to determine the functions thereof and to teach the proper use, care, and maintenance of all principal food production and service facilities; (2) research to evaluate and determine the type, size, capacity, quality, and quantity of all equipment that is to be selected and/or that is to be custom designed and engineered; (3) determination of all factors pertinent to the over-all project such as the architectural, structural, electrical, and mechanical features which must be complied with plus considerations of applicable standards and codes that may affect equipment selection and the food facilities layout; (4) schematic sketch studies of equipment, work center, departments, and the over-all food production and service facilities in preparation of the preliminary layouts for the development of a master plan. Term project involves research and drawing time to make detailed preliminary equipment layouts with other required descriptive drawings for the equipment to be custom built.

Prof. O. Ernest Bangs demonstrates principles of stainless steel fabrication in food service equipment to a class in Food Facilities Engineering.

EQUIPMENT: LAYOUTS, DESIGN, AND WORKING DRAWINGS (Food Facilities Engineering 362)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective.* Prerequisite, Food Facilities Engineering 361 or permission of instructor. Associate Professor Bangs.

Lectures, research, and laboratory work are centered in the student's project thesis. Each student programs, plans, and develops a complete project. This involves study to: (1) research the project program and draw up the prospectus; (2) select and design equipment; (3) develop layout studies and complete the master plan (preliminary renderings); (4) develop working drawings (contract drawings), including equipment and architectural plans, mechanical plans, equipment detail drawings, and equipment schedules which are required for bidding, fabrication, construction, and installation; (5) budget estimate and a review of feasibility studies.

FOOD FACILITIES ENGINEERING: SPECIFICATIONS, SHOP DRAWINGS, AND CONTRACT SUPERVISION (Food Facilities Engineering 363)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Prerequisite, Food Facilities Engineering 362. Associate Professor Bangs.

Lectures, research, and laboratory work include the areas of methods and detailed facilities engineering. This involves studies of general and itemized specifications, bid analysis and awarding of contracts, checking and approving shop drawings, field supervision, inspection, field conferences, punch lists, approval for acceptance of all facilities, and operational instruction.

* This course may be counted as three hours of Hotel Engineering electives.

FOOD AND FOOD SCIENCE

Statler Hall provides excellent facilities for instruction in all aspects of foods: in the purchasing, storage, preparation, and service of food as well as of wines and liquors; and in basic science. Among the facilities are: (1) The "Oscar of the Waldorf" lecture room, a sloping-floor auditorium seating 133, equipped with a laboratory demonstration table, sink, and roll-away range; (2) two elementary food laboratories, each accommodating 20 students and each equipped with 20 stoves and 20 sinks as well as extensive stainless steel work spaces and all necessary mechanical equipment; (3) a 40-place basic chemistry laboratory and a 40-place laboratory for the study of the scientific applications of chemical and physical principles to food production; (4) a lecture demonstration area for instruction in the selection and grading of meats, poultry, and fish; (5) a laboratory for cutting and portioning meats, poultry, and fish, supported by extensive refrigerator and freezer storage units, power equipment, and testing devices; (6) a series of experimental kitchens for the testing of recipes and procedures; (7) an especially designed blast freezing chamber; and (8) the practice kitchens of the Statler Inn where the students prepare under instruction the food for the various Statler Inn and Statler Club dining rooms, which have seating totaling a thousand.

These kitchens are laid out to function both as quantity food production centers and as training centers for prospective hotelmen and restaurateurs learning food production on a large-quantity basis. The equipment, all of commercial size and of the latest design, duplicated in gas and electricity, is so varied that the student has the opportunity to use and to analyze a wide range of modern kitchen appliances. The student lounge kitchen is designed for the use of students in support of their daily coffee hour and their parties and receptions.

All of these laboratories are for the exclusive use of the School's hotel and restaurant students. They are designed and equipped especially for their particular teaching functions.

Regulation uniform of white coat, apron, and chef's cap is furnished by the student and is required for the first food laboratory.

COMMERCIAL FOOD MANAGEMENT: SURVEY (Hotel Administration 101)

Credit three hours. Required. Assistant Professor Christian.

Provides an introduction to the fundamentals of commercial food preparation, nutrition, product identification, and storage. Presents the current methods and principles of food production as practiced by the food service industry. Students obtain classroom instruction, demonstrations, and small quantity laboratory practice. Food management experience is obtained by periodically operating the Rathskeller of Statler Inn, where faculty and their guests dine. Phases covered, on a rotating basis, include menu planning, requisitioning, pricing, preparation, serving, sanitation, and performance evaluation.

MANAGERIAL ASPECTS OF PURCHASING (Hotel Administration 118)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Open to juniors and seniors.

Survey of the problems of purchasing meat, fish, poultry, canned products, fresh and frozen produce, dishes, and utilities. Speakers are leading managers and purveyors from the commercial food industry. In addition to lectures and class presentation, careful study is given to the writing of a purchasing manual.

QUANTITY FOOD PRODUCTION: MANAGEMENT OF THE OPERATION (Hotel Administration 201)

Credit four hours. Required. Prerequisites, Hotel Administration 120, 214, 215, 220. Mr. Bond.

Large quantity food production in the Statler Inn kitchen of luncheons and dinners served to 200 to 350 patrons. The student manager for the week plans the menus, prepares food requisitions, supervises preparation and service, and submits a report and analysis on his operation. Discussion periods review principles and methods applied in laboratory periods. Quality and cost controls are emphasized. The use of standardized formulas and techniques in relation to nonstandardized practice is demonstrated. The use of, and present value of, convenience foods is investigated under profit and loss conditions. Sanitary, safe, and economical uses of food and of equipment as well as preparation and serving space are stressed.

Students have one meal in the cafeteria on laboratory days.

QUANTITY FOOD PRODUCTION: MANAGEMENT OF THE OPERATION (Hotel Administration 201A)

Credit two hours. Permission of the instructor is required. Mr. Bond.

This course, plus Hotel Administration 202 or 203, may be submitted for Hotel Administration 201 by students who can present evidence of extensive experience in quantity food preparation.

Students have one meal in the cafeteria on laboratory days.

CLASSICAL CUISINE (Hotel Administration 202)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Prerequisite, Hotel Administration 201 or equivalent experience.

International hotel cuisine is systematically presented in this course. The correct utilization of the animal carcass and of plant life is demonstrated through the skillful preparation of a great variety of food.

The emphasis is on unusual appetizers, fish, shellfish, other entrees, poultry, and game, with the appropriate garnishing and some exhibition desserts. The student has the opportunity to observe preparation skill in detail, participate, write recipes, watch corrective service, and taste the prepared food.

SMORGASBORD (Hotel Administration 203)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Prerequisite, Hotel Administration 201.

The laboratory consists of planning, requisitioning, preparing, and serving the food for an elaborate buffet in Statler Inn. In discussion periods principles and methods applied, with emphasis on quality, cost control, use of available facilities, labor skill, and equipment for a profitable operation are reviewed. The student has the opportunity to taste and criticize the food prepared.

A SURVEY OF CONVENIENCE FOODS (Hotel Administration 204)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Prerequisites, Hotel Administration 101, 214, 215 and permission of the instructor. Assistant Professor Christian.

Methods of food preservation are reviewed with special emphasis on the place of prepared foods in the commercial food operation. The student serves and evaluates prepared hors d'oeuvres, salads, soups, entrees, desserts, and vegetables from the standpoint of quality, cost, and menu adaptability.

First-year students learn both small and large quantity food preparation and service. In an elementary Food Management class (opposite), Prof. Vance A. Christian demonstrates how stock is made from browned beef bones. The containers to his right hold commercially prepared stock and sauce bases.

Advanced Food Management students rotate as manager, assistant manager, and food service worker. (Above) A student manager briefs the class on the menu she planned for preparation and service to about 200 students in the School's cafeteria. Looking on is the instructor, Cdr. Leslie E. Bond, U.S.N. (Ret.).

heterocycles

INTERNATIONAL HOTEL CUISINE (Hotel Administration 205)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen and graduates. Professor Bernatsky.

International hotel cuisine is systematically presented. The correct utilization of the animal carcass and of plant life is demonstrated through the skillful preparation of a wide variety of food. The student has the opportunity to observe preparation skill in detail, write recipes, watch correct presentation and service, and taste the prepared food.

MEAT, POULTRY, AND FISH (Hotel Administration 206)

Credit three hours. Required. Professor Wanderstock.

Deals with the major phases of meat, poultry, and fish from the hotel, restaurant, club, and institutional standpoint; nutritive value, structure and composition, sanitation, selection and purchasing, cutting, freezing, cooking, carving, and miscellaneous topics. Required three-day field trip to visit purveyors in New York City included. Estimated cost for this trip ranges between $30 and $40.

CHEMISTRY (Hotel Administration 214)

Credit five hours. Required. Professor Smith and staff.

Includes a general study of the laws and concepts of chemistry based upon the common elements and the application of these concepts to the basic interests of the industry including food technology.

CHEMISTRY AND ITS APPLICATION TO FOOD PRODUCTS (Hotel Administration 215)

Credit five hours. Required. Prerequisite, Hotel Administration 214 or equivalent. Professor Smith and staff.

Basic organic chemistry principles are taught with special emphasis on the chemistry of fats, carbohydrates, proteins, flavorings, pigments, and the role of food additives.

FOOD PREPARATION (Hotel Administration 220)

Credit three hours. Required. Prerequisites, Hotel Administration 101 or its equivalent; Hotel Administration 206 desirable. Professor Ericson and Mrs. Kelsey.

An advanced foods course which gives experience in current methods and principles of food preparation, variety and garnish of foods adapted to hotel and restaurant service. Special emphasis is placed on small and large quantity recipe development.

FOOD SELECTION AND PURCHASE (Institution Management 220)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Open to juniors and seniors. Permission of instructor required.

A discussion of sources, standards of quality, grades, methods of purchase, care, and storage of various classes of food. A one-day trip will be included. Estimated cost, $4.

Food chemistry courses enable students to deal effectively with the technical aspects of food production. Prof. Laura L. Smith is explaining the molecular structure of water-soluble pigments in fruits and vegetables.

SANITATION IN THE FOOD SERVICE OPERATION (Hotel Administration 221)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective. Mr. Bond and Professor White.

The causes and prevention of food poisoning are stressed. Included are the aesthetic, moral, and legal responsibilities involved in presenting sanitary food to patrons as well as the profit and loss factors.

CATERING FOR SPECIAL FUNCTIONS (Hotel Administration 254)

Credit two hours. Hotel elective. Professor Bernatsky.

The systematic presentation of catering to special functions. Emphasis is placed on maximum sales potential through use of existing facilities. Lectures and demonstrations on banquet layout, menus, service, and sales.

COMMERCIAL AIRLINE FEEDING* (Hotel Administration 123)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective.

A survey of a growing and important segment of the food service industry, which goes beyond in-flight food service, covering customer service, reservation-terminal and in-flight service, airline sales promotion, and a comparison of domestic and international airline operations.

MENU PLANNING* (Hotel Administration 124)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective.

Principles of menu planning for hotels, restaurants, clubs, and institutional service, with emphasis on history and development, types and uses, format and organization, and pricing.

SPECIAL PROBLEMS IN FOOD (Hotel Administration 353)

Spring term. Credit one hour. Permission of instructors required. Prerequisites, Hotel Administration 101, 220, 206, 214, 215, and 201. Professors Ericson and Wanderstock.

A seminar course for upperclassmen and graduate students designed to examine in detail various aspects of food and food service in hotels, restaurants, clubs, and related fields.

INTRODUCTORY BIOCHEMISTRY (Biochemistry 231)

Credit three hours. Prerequisites, Chemistry 104 or 108, or the equivalent. Professor Williams.

A brief survey of organic chemistry as related to biological compounds and a discussion of biochemical reactions associated with the metabolism of animals, plants, and microorganisms. Especially designed as a general course for four-year students.

* Courses marked with an asterisk are given in alternate years or as the demand requires. Other courses are ordinarily given at least once a year, but in any case offerings are adjusted to the requirements.

Menus are built around meat, poultry, and fish. Prof. J. J. Wanderstock explains the relative desirability of the various cuts which can be made from a beef hindquarter.

HUMAN NUTRITION (Food And Nutrition 192)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Planned for students not enrolled in the College of Home Economics who have had no previous college course in human nutrition. Associate Professor Gift.

A study of the nutrients essential to human life and well-being, their functions in metabolism and their sources in food as it is consumed; application of this information to the significant relationship between food habits and health.

HUMAN PHYSIOLOGY (Agriculture 210)

Credit three hours. Prerequisite, previous courses, in either college or high school, in biology and in chemistry. Professors Lutwak and McFarland.

Basic concepts of human anatomy and physiology will be presented to provide the groundwork for the understanding of the functioning of the human body in health and disease. Emphasis will be placed on the relationship of human physiology to problems of public health and contemporary living. The individual systems, such as cardiovascular, gastrointestinal, neurological, endocrine, renal, etc., will be discussed singly and in correlation with each other. Guest lecturers will be invited as appropriate.

HANDLING AND MARKETING OF VEGETABLES (Vegetable Crops 212)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Professor Hartman.

Principles and procedures involved in the distribution, processing, and quality maintenance of vegetables from harvest to the ultimate consumer. Development, validation, and use, present and prospective, of instrumental measurements of color, texture, and flavor in vegetables. Specifications, purposes, and utilization of quality standards by food and health-control governmental agencies, by food manufacturers, and by research organizations.

ECONOMIC FRUITS OF THE WORLD* (Pomology 301)

Credit three hours. Permission of the instructor required to register. Hotel elective. Professor Smock.

The more important subtropical and tropical fruit species such as citrus, banana, mango, coffee, and cacao are dealt with. Morphology, physiology, and adaptation to climate are discussed rather than details of culture. A broad view of world pomology is given.

HOSPITAL ADMINISTRATION

Students enrolled in the School of Hotel Administration who look forward to working in the hospital field may enroll in courses offered in Cornell's Sloan Institute of Hospital Administration, which is supported by a grant of $750,000 from the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation. Complete details of the courses are given in the Announcement of the Graduate School of Business and Public Administration.

HOUSEKEEPINGHOTEL HOUSEKEEPING* (Textiles 104A)

Credit one hour. Hotel elective. Open to upperclassmen.

* Courses marked with an asterisk are given in alternate years or as the demand requires. Other courses are ordinarily given at least once a year, but in any case offerings are adjusted to the requirements.

An outline of the responsibilities and techniques of the housekeeping department; the selection and purchase of equipment and materials; the selection, training, and supervision of department personnel.

INTERIOR DESIGN

The elements of interior design are included as part of three advanced courses in hotel engineering—Seminar in Hotel Construction and Renovation, Seminar in Hotel Lighting and Color, and Contract Interiors (Housing and Design 130)—for which the course content and prerequisites for enrollment are set forth on page 32. Students may also count as free electives certain elementary courses in design offered by the Department of Housing and Design of the College of Home Economics. For the content and enrollment prerequisites of these courses, the student is referred to the current Announcement of the College of Home Economics.

TEXTILES FURNISHINGS* (Textiles 370)

Credit three hours. Hotel elective. Professor Stout.

Brief survey of world trade conditions and influence on textiles supplies and markets. United States textile fibers, classification, and general properties. Types and qualities of widely used textile furnishings such as blankets, sheets, table linen, mattresses, rugs, drapery, upholstery fabrics, and curtains. Methods of manufacture and marketing specific to the production and distribution of these articles.

Specifications, standards, and federal and state legislation pertaining to their sale and use. Relation of fiber, finish, and processing to price, specific end-use, and maintenance.

LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION

An extensive variety of courses in the art of communication, in English composition, in public speaking, in the fluent use of foreign languages, and in the literature of English and other languages, is open to election by hotel students. Space for the description of only a few of them is available here. Full details regarding the others will be found in the Announcement of the College of Arts and Sciences. Particularly noteworthy for the hotel student are the very effective conversational-method courses in modern languages. Six semester hours of foreign languages may be counted among the required hotel electives.

INTRODUCTORY COURSES IN READING AND WRITING

(English 111-112)

Throughout the year. Credit three hours a term. Required. English 111 is prerequisite to 112. Associate Professor McConkey and others.

Practice in writing. Careful study of works by a small number of modern writers.

ORAL AND WRITTEN EXPRESSION (Communication Arts 301)

Credit two hours. Accepted for required expression. Open to juniors and seniors. Associate Professors Freeman, Martin, and staff.

Practice in oral and written presentation of topics in agriculture, home economics and other fields, with criticism and individual appointments on the technique of public speech. Designed to encourage interest in public affairs, and, through demonstrations and the use of graphic materials and other forms, to train for effective self-expression in public. Special training is given to competitors for the Eastman Prizes for Public Speaking.

ORAL AND WRITTEN EXPRESSION (Communication Arts 302)

Credit two hours. Accepted for required expression. Prerequisite, Communication Arts 301, of which 302 is a continuation. Associate Professors Freeman and Martin, and Assistant Professor Campbell.

A continuation of Course 301 with emphasis on longer speeches and the use of visual aids. Individual appointments are scheduled to aid in preparation of each speech.

PUBLIC SPEAKING (Speech and Drama 201)

Credit three hours. Accepted for required expression. Not open to freshmen, or to students who have taken Speech and Drama 103. Professor Wilson and others.

Designed to help the student communicate his convictions and ideas effectively in oral discourse. Study of basic principles of expository and persuasive speaking with emphasis on selecting, evaluating, and organizing materials, and on simplicity and directness in style and delivery. Practice in preparing and delivering speeches of various types on current issues and in chairmanship; study of examples; conferences.

Students whose native language is not English must obtain special clearance from the Department of Speech and Drama before registering.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY (English 225-226)

Throughout the year. Credit three hours a term. First term not prerequisite to the second. Professors Kleine and Frederick.

British and American writers. Fall term: Dreiser, O'Neill, Joyce, Yeats, Lawrence, Forster, and others. Spring term: Frost, Eliot, Auden, Huxley, Waugh, Hemingway, Faulkner, and others.

BRITISH LITERATURE (English 255-256)

Throughout the year. Credit three hours a term. English 255 is not prerequisite to English 256. Professor Healey.

A study of works by notable English, Scottish, and Irish authors from the time of Chaucer to that of Yeats. First term: from Chaucer to Boswell. Second term: from Burns to Yeats.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

The mastery of a foreign language is a mark of a well-educated man or woman. For the hotelman a second language is particularly desirable. At Cornell the foreign languages are taught by modern methods that place special emphasis on speaking and understanding the spoken language. The daily classes are kept small. Native speaker and playback machines are extensively used.

COURSES OF CULTURAL VALUE

The professional courses required in the curriculum of the School of Hotel Administration have much of general educational value. Students of the School have open to them, in addition, literally hundreds of courses in other colleges of the University whose value to them would be principally cultural. Thus, a student taking full advantage of his free elective courses may have half of his program (60 hours of the required 120 hours) in general education.

Hotel students are encouraged to take full advantage of their opportunities and to acquaint themselves with other disciplines. It is not practical to list all the offerings from which they might select, but, to assist the student in making the beginning contact, the descriptions of a few of the more popular introductory courses are given below:

SPECIAL FORMS OF WRITING (English 203)

Credit three hours.

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT (Government 101)

Credit three hours.

INTRODUCTION TO WESTERN CIVILIZATION (History 105-106)

Credit three hours each term.

AMERICAN HISTORY (History 215-216)

Credit three hours each term.

INTRODUCTION TO PHILOSOPHY (Philosophy 101)

Credit three hours.

DEVELOPMENT OF AMERICAN IDEALS (Industrial and Labor Relations 408-409)

Credit three hours each term.

WRITING FOR MAGAZINES (Communication Arts 313)

Credit three hours.

46 STUDENTS IN OTHER DIVISIONS

NEWS WRITING (Communication Arts 315)

Credit two hours.

RADIO BROADCASTING AND TELECASTING (Communication Arts 220)

Credit three hours.

TELEVISION PRODUCTION AND PROGRAMING (Communication Arts 422)

Credit two hours.

PRINCIPLES OF FLOWER ARRANGEMENT (Floriculture and Ornamental Horticulture 105)

Credit two hours.

SURVEY OF WESTERN ARCHITECTURE (Architecture 400)

Credit three hours.

COURSES OPEN TO STUDENTS ENROLLED IN OTHER DIVISIONS OF THE UNIVERSITY

BASIC FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT (Hotel Accounting 240)

Credit three hours. Fall and spring terms.

PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION (Hotel Administration 119)

Credit three hours. Fall and spring terms.

TYPEWRITING (Hotel Administration 37)

Credit two hours. Fall and spring terms.

SHORTHAND (Hotel Administration 131)

Credit four hours. Fall term.

SECRETARIAL TYPEWRITING (Hotel Administration 132)

Credit two hours. Fall and spring terms.

SECRETARIAL PROCEDURES (Hotel Administration 138)

Credit four hours. Spring term.

LAW OF BUSINESS (Hotel Administration 171)

Credit two hours. Fall term.

LAW OF BUSINESS (Hotel Administration 271)

Credit two hours. Spring term.

LAW OF BUSINESS: CONTRACTS, BAILMENTS, AND AGENCY
(Hotel Administration 272)

Credit two hours. Fall term.

LAW OF BUSINESS: BUSINESS ORGANIZATION — PARTNERSHIPS
AND CORPORATIONS (Hotel Administration 274)

Credit two hours. Spring term.

PUBLIC RELATIONS AND SALES PROMOTION (Hotel Administration 176)

Credit two hours. Fall and spring terms.

MILITARY TRAINING

As a land grant institution chartered under the Morrill Act of 1862, Cornell has offered instruction in military science for more than ninety years. This instruction is provided through the ROTC programs of the three military departments, the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force.

The ROTC programs offer a male student the opportunity to earn a commission while he is completing his education, thus enabling him to fulfill his military commitment as an officer rather than through the draft. To obtain a commission in one of the armed services, a student must complete a four-year course of study in an ROTC program and meet certain physical and mental requirements. Upon graduation, he then receives a commission and serves a required tour of active military service. Participation in ROTC is voluntary. Interested students must enroll in the fall term of the freshman year, since four years of ROTC are required to qualify for a commission. Detailed information concerning the ROTC programs is provided in a separate Announcement, Officer Education.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND ATHLETICS

The distinctive feature of athletics and physical education at Cornell is the de-emphasis of the spectator sports like big-time varsity football, and the emphasis of participation by the average student in all-around varsity and intramural sports. The objective is to get every student into an athletic activity of some sort rather than to develop a small group of varsity athletes.

All undergraduates must take four terms of work in physical education. Ordinarily, the requirement must be completed in the first two years of residence; postponements are to be allowed only by consent of the University Faculty Committee on Requirements for Graduation. The requirement in physical education is described in further detail in the Announcement of General Information. The courses offered are described in publications made available to students by the Department of Physical Education.

Cornell supports an unusually wide range of intercollegiate sports, 29 in all, five more than the average Ivy League institution and twice as many as most state institutions. Cornell furnishes the equipment and uniforms for these teams and provides the supervision, the coaches, the officials, the playing fields, and the travel expense. But comprehensive as is the intercollegiate activity, it is completely overshadowed by the less formal, but more interesting and healthful, intramural program. Under this program 1,556 contests in 20 sports among 651 teams organized into 65 leagues were held during the fall, winter, and spring of 1965-66. Over 10,000 participants were involved. This extensive intramural program brings hundreds of students onto the playing fields every afternoon where the emphasis is less on the score than on having wholesome fun and exercise out of doors.

Hotel students field a number of teams for intercollegiate competition on the campus, and most of them as individuals appear at one time or another on interfraternity or interdormitory teams.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Students enrolled in the four-year course in hotel administration are members of the Cornell University undergraduate body. As such they participate in all the customary student activities; they represent the University on athletic teams, are members of the musical clubs, are cadet officers in the three Reserve Officers Training Corps, and hold office on the boards of student publications. They are eligible to membership in the social fraternities and in the appropriate honorary fraternities.

Hotel students also conduct among themselves a number of special enterprises in addition to those of the University as a whole. Every student is eligible to membership in the Cornell Hotel Association. By student election, upperclassmen who distinguish themselves in student projects win memberships in Ye Hosts, the recognition organization. Ye Hosts act as a reception committee for the new students and for visiting hotelmen.

Under the auspices of the Cornell Hotel Association, informal teams are organized to represent the School in intramural sports, a predominant feature of Cornell athletic activity. The annual Hotel Ezra Cornell is a project in which the students organize and finance a hotel operating company, take over Statler Hall, and open and run it as a hotel with all the appropriate ceremony. They organize without faculty assistance a regular three-day convention program, including symposia, workshops, and addresses with an appropriate concomitant array of social events, receptions, breakfasts, luncheons, buffets, cocktail parties, and dinners, for which all the planning, preparation, and service are student projects executed with the greatest finesse. In attendance are the presidents of the leading group hotel and restaurant organizations; and the chief executives, operators and managers of hotels, restaurants, and institutions of all types.

Each year a group of upperclassmen attends the convention of the New York State Hotel Association, visits the National Hotel Exposition, and makes a tour of inspection of metropolitan hotels. Groups also attend the Midwest Hotel and Restaurant Exposition in Chicago, and the New England Hotel Exposition in Boston. The students participate in social functions associated with the conventions. With the alumni organization, the Cornell Society of Hotelmen, they entertain at smokers and receptions the hotelmen who are attending the conventions.

A chapter of the Junior Hotelmen of America, and junior chapters of Les Amis d'Escoffier and the Hotel Sales Management Association have been established in the student body.

PLACEMENT SERVICE

More and more employers are seeking young people with specific training, experience, and interest. In cooperation with the Cornell Society of Hotelmen, the office of the School maintains an active and aggressive placement service to assist students in obtaining hotel jobs during the summer and to assist graduates in making contacts for permanent positions. A feature of the placement work is the development, through the annual Hotel Ezra Cornell opening and the attendance at hotel conventions and similar functions, of numerous contacts between students and hotelmen. As a result, the students and graduates have an extensive acquaintance among prospective employers.

A number of hotel and restaurant organizations offer "internship" or "trainee" programs to the members of the junior and senior classes. While the details vary among the organizations, all the programs contemplate a year or more of training with experience in all the departments and with supplemental instruction. In some cases, no commitment is made by the employer or the trainee beyond the period of training. In others, more definite arrangements are made. Cooperating organizations have included Hilton Hotels, Hotel Corporation of America, Sheraton Hotels, Intercontinental Hotels, Stouffer's, Hot Shoppes, ARA-Slater, and Saga Food Service.

The School and its work are known to all important hotel and restaurant men. Many of these men contribute instruction either directly or through members of their staffs. Consequently, Cornell hotel graduates have been well received in the industry. Many of the graduates have themselves already attained posts of sufficient importance to enable them to place some of their younger associates. All these helpful contacts and the accomplishments of the graduates have contributed to the placement record of the School: over 98 per cent employment of graduates throughout its history, including the depression years. All the graduates, every year, have had opportunities open to them.

A recent survey of the earnings of the graduates of the School indicates that their financial success is high in comparison both with that of the noncollege graduate in the hotel field and with that of college graduates in many other fields where a degree is required. The average salary reported was $14,500. The average among those out about a year is $7,200. Salaries reported range to over $100,000.

The first Cornell hotel class was graduated in 1925 with eleven members. On July 15, 1966, there were 2,478 living graduates. Cornell graduates have given extensive leadership to their chosen profession. Henry A. Montague '34 is past President of the National Restaurant Association; Roy Watson, Jr. '48 is past President of the American Hotel & Motel Association; Louis E. Rogers '52 is past President of the Hotel Sales Management Association; and Theodore W. Minah '32 is President of the National College and University Food Services. Many of them are presidents of their respective state hotel and restaurant associations.

Similarly it will be noted that Cornell graduates are in highly responsible business positions with the large hotel groups: C. A. Bell, Jr. '49 is Vice President of Administration of Hilton Hotels International; J. Frank Birdsall '35 is President of Treadway Inns; R. M. Brush '34 is Senior Vice President of Sheraton Hotels Corporation; H. L. Dayton '28 is President of Dayton Hotels; J. P. Duchscherer '36 is Executive Vice President of Schimmel Hotels Corporation; R. W. Dupar '49 is Vice President and head of the Food and Beverage Division of Western Hotels; W. W. Grice '53 is Vice President of Marriott Motor Lodges; P. R. Handlery '43 is President of Handlery Hotels; L. P. Himmelman '33 is Senior Vice President of Western Hotels; Allen Hubsch '51 is Food and Beverage Director of the Hotel Corporation of America; J. W. Keithan '50 is Purchasing Agent for Western Hotels; L. H. Lee '30 is President of the Lee Hotel Company; W. W. Lee, Jr. '36 is Vice President and General Manager of Howard Johnson's Motor Lodges; K. E. Mallory '52 is General Manager of Western International Hotels de Mexico; A. B. Merrick '30 is President of the Roger Smith Hotels; E. R. Milner '55 is President of Milner Hotels; R. F. Schoff '53 is Vice President of Marriott-Hot Shoppes; Paul Sonnabend '50 is Executive Vice President of Hotel Corporation of America; J. V. Stouffer '55 is Vice President-General Manager of Stouffer Foods Corporation's Restaurant and Inn Division; Curt Strand '43 is Executive Vice President of Hilton Hotels International; J. B. Temple '38 is Senior Vice President of Holiday Inns of America; M. C. Warfel '33 is Vice President, Food and Beverage Operations, for Sheraton Hotels Corporation; and Roy Watson, Jr. '48 is President of the Kahler Corporation.

Many of the country's noted individual hotels are also managed by Cornellians. In New York City, the Pierre is managed by John Slack '26 and the St. Moritz, by J. N. Mados '49. Other well known hotels include the Washington Mayflower, managed by J. F. Craver '52; the Los Angeles Biltmore, by B. E. Bernard '55; the Mauna Kea Beach of Hawaii, by L. H. Moore, Jr. '44; the Greenbrier, by E. T. Wright '34; the Wentworth-by-the-Sea, by J. B. Smith '31; the Cloister, by Irving Harned '35; the Mountainview House, by John B. Dodge '57; the Arizona-Biltmore, by H. B. Williams '30; and Grossinger's, by Paul Grossinger '36. In St. Louis, the Chase-Park Plaza is managed by Lee Schoenbrunn '40; the Sheraton-Jefferson, by T. C. Deveau '27; and the Mayfair-Lennox, by C. G. Heiss '45. In Omaha, the Blackstone is managed by E. T. Schimmel '27; in Kansas City, the Muehlebach, by Philip Pistilli '54. In Puerto Rico, H. P. Blanc '54 is General Manager of the Mayaguez Hilton. The Rockefeller Resort Hotels are directed by R. E. Holtzman '41.

Many foreign hotels have Cornellian management: the Amsterdam and Rotterdam Hilton hotels; the Royal Tehran Hilton; the Dome, Kyrenia; the Residency, Pretoria; the Hanko, Fredrikstad; the Lausanne-Palace, Lausanne; the Imperial and the Shiba Park, Tokyo; the El Mansour, Casablanca; the Intercontinental, Jerusalem; the Oberoi Intercontinental, New Delhi; the Indonesia, Djakarta; and numerous other hotels around the world.

In the restaurant field it is the same. Joseph H. Baum '43 is President of Restaurant Associates and many other Cornellians hold executive positions in such multi-unit operations as Marriott-Hot Shoppes, Dobbs House, Howard Johnson's, Dutch Pantry, Marshall Field restaurants, Pope Cafeterias, and Stouffer's. H. A. Montague '34 is President of Greyhound Food Management, P. T. Yochum '48 is President of the A. L. Mathias Company, and also the vice presidents of ARA-Slater, Interstate Hosts, and Automatic Canteen, five of the largest industrial feeders, are Cornellians. Important hospitals, such as the Memorial Center for Cancer and Allied Diseases, are under Cornellian administration. College residence halls and dining facilities under Cornellian direction include those at Brown, Cornell, California, Duke, Harvard, UCLA, Princeton, Hawaii, Stanford, Columbia, Fordham, and University of Michigan. The contribution of Cornell hotel alumni to allied fields is also outstanding.

Statler Hall, home of the School of Hotel Administration, is constructed in three sections. The building's central section, shown above, is entirely given over to classrooms, laboratories, and offices. The School's library, student lounge, and additional classrooms and offices are located in the Alice Statler wing, out of the picture to the right. Staller Inn, which is to the left and also not shown, provides a practice laboratory for students.

ADMISSION

Admission to the School of Hotel Administration is granted in September and in February to the prospective student who meets:

- A. The regular academic entrance requirements, and
- B. The requirements in personal qualifications.

A. ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

The applicant must have completed a secondary school course and must offer sixteen units of entrance credit including English, four units, mathematics, three units, and science, one unit (preferably chemistry or physics). The remaining units should include additional mathematics and sciences, social studies (including history), and a foreign language. The Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board is required.

ENGLISH, 4 YEARS (required of all entering students)..... 4

FOREIGN LANGUAGES (modern and ancient)

French	1-4	Spanish	1-4
German	1-4	Greek	1-3
Hebrew	1-3	Latin	1-4
Italian	1-3

(If a foreign language is offered for entrance, it is desirable to present at least two years, although credit will be granted for a single year of study in not more than two languages.)

MATHEMATICS

Elementary Algebra	1	Plane Geometry	1
Intermediate Algebra	1	Solid Geometry	1/2
Advanced Algebra	1/2	Plane Trigonometry	1/2

SCIENCES

Biology	1	General Science	1
Botany	1/2-1	Physics	1
Chemistry	1	Zoology	1/2-1
Earth Science	1/2-1

(If a unit in biology is offered, a half-unit in botany and a half-unit in zoology may not also be counted.)

SOCIAL STUDIES, including history (each course)..... 1/2-1

VOCATIONAL SUBJECTS

Agriculture	1/2-1	Industrial Arts	1/2-1
Bookkeeping	1/2-1	Electives—any high school
Drawing	1/2-1	subject or subjects not al-
Home Economics	1/2-1	ready used and acceptable
		to the University	1/2-2

High school and other preparatory work is appraised in the Office of Admissions, to which the formal application and credentials should be sent. Correspondence relating to the academic admission requirements should be directed to the Office of Admissions, Day Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

A candidate may obtain credit in the subjects he wishes to present for admission in one or more ways, or some combination of them:

1. By presenting an acceptable school certificate.
2. By passing, in the required subjects, the achievement tests of the College Entrance Examination Board, or
3. By passing the necessary Regents examinations.

Since students enroll for the work in hotel administration at Cornell University from all parts of the United States and from other countries, and since the subjects of study available to students in the high schools vary from section to section, the prospective student is allowed wide freedom in the choice of his high school subjects. Only English, obviously valuable, and the minimum mathematics necessary for the important required sequence of courses in engineering are specified. Students and vocational advisers should not, however, be misled by this freedom. The curriculum in hotel administration includes a number of rigorous courses in accounting, science, and engineering, and, while the committee on admissions gives due weight to the more personal factors, it insists, for the protection of the prospective student, on evidence of good scholastic ability — ability to carry an exacting college program.

The committee believes that a sequence of study of at least three years of a foreign language is likely to be useful to the hotel man or restaurateur and that its completion is an evidence of scholastic ability. Two years of a language are of much less value than three.

While not required, a four-year sequence in mathematics is evidence of good workmanship. Trigonometry is useful in engineering courses. Of the sciences, physics (an additional foundation for engineering) and chemistry are preferred. Some history should be included.

For those students who attend the larger schools with a wealth of offerings, some suggestions as to choice of studies may be welcome. In the selection of a preparatory course, consideration should be given to the student's interests and the school's facilities. It may be, nevertheless, that the suggested preparatory program below will be helpful to the adviser, the parent, and the student.

English, four units

Mathematics, three or four units

Elementary algebra, intermediate algebra, and plane geometry. Also, if possible, trigonometry, advanced algebra, or solid geometry.

History, at least one unit

Chosen according to interest of the student and facilities of the school.

Foreign language, three units

French, German, Spanish, or Latin

Science, two units

Physics (helpful in engineering); chemistry (helpful with foods work); general science; biology (helpful with foods work)

Electives, enough units to make the total sixteen.

B. PERSONAL REQUIREMENTS

As more applicants can meet the requirements stated under "A" above than can be accommodated, the faculty attempts to choose through a Committee on Admissions (whose decisions are final) those likely to profit most by the instruction offered. The Committee asks that each prospective student arrange an interview with a representative of the School and that each prospective student take the Scholastic Aptitude Test given by the College Entrance Examination Board.* Applicants are required to furnish three pictures, passport size, with the formal application or at the time of the interview.

The interviews are best held in Ithaca. Therefore, candidates who can conveniently visit Ithaca are urged to do so. They will profit by an acquaintance with the University, its facilities, and its staff. The interview will be most meaningful. In his correspondence, the applicant should mention the date and the hour of his choice, addressing his request to the School of Hotel Administration, Statler Hall.

However, not all prospective students can readily come to Ithaca. To meet their needs other arrangements are made. An interview team goes to Chicago each year at the time of the Mid-West Hotel Exposition, to Boston at the time of the New England Hotel Exposition, and to Cleveland, New York, Philadelphia, and Washington during March and April. Arrangements have also been made with graduates and others active in the hotel and restaurant business in most of the principal cities of the world to serve as interviewers. The prospective student should inform the School of his choice of time and place for his interview by writing directly to the School of Hotel Administration, Statler Hall.

The Scholastic Aptitude Test is given by the College Entrance Examination Board at points all over the country and in the larger cities abroad. It is given five times a year, but the prospective student should plan to take the test in December or January. Detailed information regarding the places of examination and the exact dates can be obtained by writing to the College Entrance Examination Board, Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey 08540. Prospective students residing in the Rocky Mountain states or farther west should address the Board at Box 1025, Berkeley, California 94701. Admission to the Scholastic Aptitude Test is by prior arrangement only. Application for admission should be filed directly with the Board. To avoid a late application fee, it should be filed not later than three weeks in advance of the date of the examination.

The procedures involved in securing admission may appear somewhat involved. They are designed, however, to protect the prospective student. Only those are admitted who seem likely to be able to carry a rigorous college program and who seem likely later to be successful in the industry. The risk of future failure or disappointment is thus reduced to a minimum. To provide ample time for all the arrangements, the formal application for admission should be filed before March 15 for students planning to enter in September. Students planning to enter the spring term in February should file formal application by December 1.

* By exception this requirement is waived in the cases of applicants who are college graduates and in the cases of applicants whose mother tongue is not English.

Entering students, graduate or undergraduate, should consult the Announcement of General Information for details on certain medical requirements that must be met either before or during the registration period. The Announcement may be obtained by writing to the Office of Announcements, Day Hall.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

With the approval of the Committee on Admissions students may be admitted to the School with advanced standing from other institutions of collegiate grade. To such students credit will ordinarily be given, against the specific degree requirements, for those courses for which substantially equivalent work has been done. For that portion of the student's work not applicable to the specific requirements, credit up to 24 hours will ordinarily be given against the requirement of 120 hours. The total of transfer credit allowed may not exceed 60 semester hours. Transfer students will be held, in common with the others, for the completion of the hotel-practice requirement before the last term of residence. When they apply for admission they are expected to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test and to present themselves for interviews. Formal applications for admission should be filed before March 15 with the Office of Admissions, Day Hall.

Students will be accepted on transfer from junior colleges, but only if their records show them to be fully qualified for rigorous advanced college work. In each case the preparatory school record must meet Cornell entrance standards, and the junior college record must be of superior grade. No prospective student planning on eventual enrollment in the School of Hotel Administration at Cornell should embark first on a junior college program as a means of avoiding Cornell entrance requirements or as a matter of economy. If he has entrance deficiencies, he should remedy them. If he lacks funds, he should apply for scholarship aid.

COLLEGE GRADUATES

Advanced degrees, the Master's and the Doctor's, in the field of hotel and restaurant management have been offered at Cornell University since 1929. Just as with the four-year undergraduate course, the standards for admission and for graduation are high. Thus, to embark on work toward the Master's or Doctor's degree with hotel or restaurant specialization, it is required that the student have completed the undergraduate program or its equivalent.

However, many college graduates interested in professional careers in hotel or restaurant operation, in industrial feeding, in hospital administration, or in institution or club management have found the specialized courses offered by the School of Hotel Administration a valuable addition to the more general education they have received as undergraduates. When approved by the Committee on Admissions, a college graduate may enroll at his choice, either as a special student, or as a candidate for the School's Bachelor of Science degree. As a special student, he will select freely a program of courses designed to meet his particular needs. As a candidate for the degree, his choice of courses will be influenced by the degree requirements. Typically, however, college graduates have found that the courses they choose voluntarily as a matter of professional improvement are also the courses required for the degree. In any event the student is eligible for the placement assistance offered by the School and by the Cornell Society of Hotelmen.

The college graduate who elects to become a candidate for the School's degree is held for the regular degree requirements, including the practice requirement, but receives credit against the academic requirements for all work he may have previously completed satisfactorily that may be appropriately applied against those requirements, including the 24 hours of free electives. He may also receive, under the usual rules, credit against the practice requirements for any related experience in the field. The amount of time required to earn the second degree varies somewhat with the undergraduate program but is usually about two years.

Each year a substantial number of the new students entering the School are college graduates. They have a community of interest and a seriousness of purpose that makes their study at the School very effective. In the second year they are extensively employed as laboratory assistants. The colleges whose graduates have appeared on the rolls of the Hotel School and have won recognition for themselves later in the field are too numerous to list here. They include such institutions as Dartmouth, Harvard, Yale, University of Pennsylvania, Virginia, Michigan State, Tulane, and California.

College graduates, candidates for admission, are held to satisfy the personal admission requirements described on page 93. Like all other candidates for admission they present themselves for a personal interview; but they are not required to take the College Board's Scholastic Aptitude Test. Those who have previously taken the latter test, however, are asked to have the Board transmit the scores.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

Students from foreign countries who present satisfactory evidence of adequate capacity and training may be admitted to the School. If their previous education does not conform, point by point, to that required of the native student, they may, in some cases, be admitted as special students, not candidates for the degree. If their work is satisfactory, they may then later apply for regular status as degree candidates.

Prospective students whose native language is not English will not be required to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test. All prospective students, wherever they may be located, however, are required to arrange for an interview.

LIVING ARRANGEMENTS

Students studying hotel and restaurant management at Cornell University are members of the regular student body. They participate in the usual student activities, play on the teams, sing with the glee clubs, and act in student plays. Like other students, they may live in the dormitories, in fraternities or sororities, or in private homes.

For men, residence halls housing about 2100 are located on the western slope of the campus, about a five-minute walk from Statler Hall. Hotel students take many of their meals at the student cafeteria in Statler Hall, where the preparation and service are largely the work of their fellow students. The residence halls have a snack bar. Meal service is also available in the student center, Willard Straight Hall, in which all hotel students have membership; in the Martha Van Rensselaer cafeteria; in the Sage Graduate Center; and in commercial restaurants near by.

For women students, both graduate and undergraduate, the University provides attractive residence halls on the campus, less than a five-minute walk from Statler Hall. Most undergraduate women whose regular residence is outside the Ithaca area are required to live and take their meals in University residence halls, or in sorority houses (for members only). Information about exceptions to that rule may be obtained from the Office of the Dean of Students.

For married students, Cornell provides unfurnished apartments for over 400 married students and their families in the Cornell Quarters (84 apartments), Pleasant Grove (96 apartments), and the Hasbrouck Apartments (246 apartments).

Off-campus housing. All students living off campus are required to reside in properties that have been approved by the University. Information on approved housing that is currently available may be obtained at the Off-Campus Housing Office in 223 Day Hall. Because changes of available accommodations occur daily, it is not practical to prepare lists.

Information about all types of housing may be obtained by writing the Department of Housing and Dining, Day Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York 14850.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

Regularly enrolled students in the School of Hotel Administration are candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science. The requirements are:

1. The completion of eight terms in residence.*
2. The completion, with a general average of seventy, of 120 credit hours, required and elective, as set forth below:

SPECIFICALLY REQUIRED	SEMESTER HOURS
Hotel Accounting: 81, 82, 181, 182.....	16
Hotel Administration: 100, 114	5
Law: Hotel Administration 171 plus two additional hours.....	4
Hotel Engineering: 460 plus twelve additional hours	15
Food: H.A. 101, 220, 206, 201 or 201A.....	13
Chemistry: Hotel Administration 214-215.....	10
Economics: 103-104 plus three additional hours.....	9
English: 111-112.....	6
Speech 201 or Communication Arts 301-302†.....	3
<hr/> TOTAL SPECIFICALLY REQUIRED.....	<hr/> 81
Hotel Electives.....	15
Free Electives.....	24
<hr/> Total Semester Hours Required for Graduation.....	<hr/> 120

3. The completion, before entering the last term of residence, of 60 points of practice credit is defined on page 110.

4. The completion, during the first four terms of residence, of the University requirements in physical education (see Announcement of General Information).

Suggested programs of courses arranged by years appear on pages 99-101. The specifically required courses there indicated account for 81 of the total of 120 hours. From the hotel electives (pages 102-103), some combination of courses, the credit for which totals at least fifteen hours,

* College graduates and students transferring from other colleges and universities may be allowed appropriate credit against the residence requirement at the time of admission. A student who has completed six terms at the School of Hotel Administration and who has attained a cumulative average of 85 may petition the faculty for permission to waive the residence requirement.

† Communication Arts 301-302 may be substituted for Speech and Drama 201, satisfying thereby in addition one hour of hotel electives.

Prof. John H. Sherry expounds the law to future hoteliers and restaurateurs, who must pass two law courses to obtain their diplomas.

is also to be taken. The remaining 24 hours may be earned in courses chosen at will, with the approval of the adviser, from the offerings of any college of the University, provided only that the customary requirements for admission to the courses chosen are met.

Students in the School of Hotel Administration who plan to attend summer school at Cornell or elsewhere, and Cornell students who propose to attend any other university with the expectation that credit thus earned might be counted toward the Cornell degree in hotel administration, should obtain the approval of the School in advance. Credit will not be allowed otherwise.

Credit earned in the courses in military science or air science or naval science may be counted in the 24 hour group of free electives. Both men and women students are required by the University faculty to take courses in physical education, but no credit for the academic degree is allowed for these courses.

* This program, as it stands or as it may be varied with the approval of the faculty, will satisfy the requirement for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Hotel Administration with a major in Food Facilities Planning and Design.

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING

Graduates who plan to go into hotel and restaurant accounting and who expect eventually to become candidates for admission to the examination for a certificate as a certified public accountant in the State of New York may, by taking a special program, earn the certification of the School of Hotel Administration as having completed the course of study approved by the Education Department of the State of New York. The program involves carrying a substantial load of additional subjects. Students should consult with Professor Cladel.

AMERICAN DIETETIC ASSOCIATION

Students who look forward to careers that may involve responsibility for food operations in hotels, schools, colleges, and institutions generally may wish to satisfy the requirements for membership in the American Dietetic Association. To do so, it is necessary only to include among their electives a course in human physiology (Agriculture 210); a course in advanced food preparation management (such as Hotel Administration 202 or 203); a course in human nutrition (Food and Nutrition 192); and a course in personnel management (such as Hotel Administration 119). These electives together with the specifically required courses will meet the educational requirements for membership in the American Dietetic Association. To qualify as a therapeutic and administrative dietitian, the candidate must also complete four hours of Biochemistry, (Biochemistry 231), substitute Nutrition (Food and Nutrition 324) for Human Nutrition (Food and Nutrition 192), and also complete Nutrition and Disease (Food and Nutrition 330).

WORKSHOPS FOR EXECUTIVES

Workshops for executives in the hotel, restaurant, and club industry are frequently held by the School of Hotel Administration on the Cornell University campus and in other sections of the United States. The School also conducts many of its workshops in countries overseas.

For information concerning registration, housing, and fees, write to Professor G. W. Lattin, Assistant Dean, School of Hotel Administration, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

RESEARCH PROGRAM

The School of Hotel Administration has a full-time research director who coordinates studies on projects sponsored by foundations and government and industry groups. Studies completed or under way involve the applications of data processing for hotels and a new hotel management system, sponsored by the Statler Foundation; the use of ready foods; applications of glass to food service, by Corning Glass Works; the use of plastic dinnerware, for the American Cyanamid Company; silver detarnishing; mattress testing, in conjunction with the National Association of Bedding Manufacturers; a study of wall coverings; carpet research; guest preference research, at the request of AH&MA; and employee orientation and training studies.

Research studies are published in the School's technical quarterly, The Cornell Hotel and Restaurant Administration Quarterly, from which reprints may be obtained. For further information, address inquiries to Professor Charles I. Sayles, Statler Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

SUMMER SHORT COURSES

The School of Hotel Administration offers a series of short unit courses for persons actively engaged in hotel and restaurant work. One, two, or three weeks in length, they cover such topics as Hotel Operation, Motel Operation, Restaurant Management, Advertising and Sales Promotion, Personnel Methods, Quantity Food Preparation, Hotel Stewarding, Menu Planning, Hotel Accounting, Restaurant Accounting, Food Control, Interpretation of Hotel Statements, Food Facilities Engineering, Hotel Housekeeping, and Hospital Operation.

Requests for detailed information should be addressed to the Dean of the School, Statler Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

The School's Research Section is concerned with many facets of hotel and restaurant operation, as the list of projects indicates. Prof. C. I. Sayles, the director, asks a question of H. Alexander MacLennan, senior research associate, who is seated at his desk.

PRACTICE REQUIREMENT

To meet the practice requirement, each student must complete before the last term of residence three summer periods (or their equivalent) of supervised employment on approved jobs in approved hotels or restaurants. For purposes of administration this requirement is also stated as *the completion, before beginning the last term of residence, of at least 60 points of practice credit, where the point of credit is so defined that the normal summer's work of about ten weeks, with all the required * notices, reports, and other supervision, counts for 20 points.* For exceptionally good types of experience, good workmanship, and excellent reports, excess credit is given, while for poor experience, poor workmanship, on poor or tardy reports, less than normal credit is allowed.

Credit for hotel or restaurant experience is estimated on the basis of reports filed by the students, by the School's coordinator, and by the employers. A limited amount of credit (up to 45 points) may be earned before entering college. Therefore, students who expect to be employed in the field before entering Cornell University and who wish to count that work against the practice requirement should apply before beginning work or as soon thereafter as possible to the Committee on Practice for instructions. Not more than 45 points of practice credit may be earned in any one hotel or restaurant, and only fifteen points may be earned while earning academic credit. Applications for practice credit must be made at the time of registration. No credit will be allowed for prior experience not reported at the time of registration.

Each student enrolled in the School is expected to spend his summer vacation periods at approved work, and failure to do so without the express permission of the Committee on Practice or failure to submit the required practice notices and reports renders him liable to dismissal or discipline. Plans for the summer should be made definite only after a study of the practice instructions and with the approval of the chairman of the Committee. Formal application for credit must be filed on or before the first day of classes following the completion of the period of experience.

Since hotel and restaurant experience is a prerequisite for most of the special hotel and restaurant courses, it is distinctly to the student's advantage to satisfy the practice requirement early in his career. Attention is called especially to the fact that the practice requirement must be satisfied before the beginning of his last term of residence. No student is permitted to register for his final term of residence until he has satisfied the practice requirement in full.

Since cadets in the Army Reserve Officers Training Corps are expected to spend six weeks in camp during the summer before their senior year, it is especially desirable that hotel students who plan to join the Corps and to elect the advanced courses in military science make every effort to expedite their practice work early. By working the full vacation periods of thirteen weeks and by filing extra reports it is possible to satisfy the practice requirements and to attend the final summer training camp. Similarly students enrolled in the Navy Reserve Officers Training Corps who must make summer cruises should anticipate the practice requirements as much as possible.

Although the supervised practice is an essential part of the student's program, the School does not guarantee summer positions. Through the School's numerous contacts with the hotel and restaurant industry, a considerable number of openings are available for students of high promise. Other students are assisted in finding work, and ordinarily American students find jobs quite readily. Jobs suitable for foreign students are considerably less numerous. Consequently, the foreign student must expect to have considerably more difficulty in getting located. The School will give assistance as it can to foreign students but in no case can guarantee placement or assume responsibility for it.

Some hotel and restaurant organizations (among them the Hotel Corporation of America, Hilton Hotels, Intercontinental Hotels, Sheraton Hotels, and Stouffer's and Marriott-Hot Shoppes restaurants) make a point of providing experience opportunities for Cornell students, giving them special apprenticeship arrangements with rotated experience.

The type of experience for which practice credit has been given is illustrated by jobs previously held by hotel students:

EXPENSES AND SELF-SUPPORT

A detailed statement regarding fees and expenses will be found in the Announcement of General Information, a copy of which will be sent on request. In brief, the student will be held, on registering, for the following fees each semester:

Tuition*	$775.00
General Fee †	$200.00
TOTAL PER TERM*	$975.00

Living expenses, in addition to the above fees, depend upon the student's taste and standards and probably range upwards from $600 a term. Thus, for the school year of nine months, a total of about $3,600 is needed. Clothing, transportation, and fraternity dues are not included.

The student who wishes to be partially self-supporting can ordinarily earn his room or his meals, reducing the school-year budget to $2,400 or $2,600. Many earn more, but the sacrifice of time and energy and the drain of classroom work are heavy, especially the first year. Savings from summer earnings range from about $500 to $1,200. Self-supporting students may also apply for loans and for scholarships.

HEALTH SERVICES AND MEDICAL CARE

Health services and medical care for students are centered in two Cornell facilities: the Gannett Medical Clinic (out-patient department), 10 Central Avenue, and the Sage Hospital, Sage Place (entrance on East Seneca Street between Stewart Avenue and Schuyler Place). Students are entitled to unlimited visits at the Clinic (appointments with individual doctors at the Clinic may be made, if desired, by calling or coming in person; an acutely ill student will be seen promptly whether he has an appointment or not). Students are also entitled to laboratory and X-ray examinations indicated for diagnosis and treatment, hospitalization in the Sage Hospital with medical care for a maximum of fourteen days each term, and emergency surgical care. The cost of these services is covered in the General Fee.

On a voluntary basis, insurance is available to supplement the services provided by the General Fee. For further details, including charges for special services, see the Announcement of General Information. If, in the opinion of the University authorities, the student's health makes it unwise for him to remain in the University, he may be required to withdraw.

* Tuition and fees may be changed by the Board of Trustees to take effect at any time without previous notice.

† The General Fee contributes toward the services given by the libraries, the Gannett Clinic and Sage Hospital, and the student center in Willard Straight Hall; it also pays part of the costs of laboratory courses, general administration, physical recreation, and student activities. For information about other fees, methods of payment, and automobile regulations, see the Announcement of General Information.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND OTHER AIDS

No worthy and able student needs to hesitate to consider Cornell because of limited means. The scholarship resources of the Hotel School are strong, and it is the aim of the School to provide sufficient assistance so that any candidate who shows promise can make his way through without undue strain on him or his parents.

Financial aid is available from the general scholarship fund of the University and the large number of Hotel School scholarships listed below. Aid is available through work opportunities in the Statler Inn and Club, on the campus, and in the community. The Guiteau Fund and the loan fund of the Cornell Society of Hotelmen are also available.

APPLICATIONS

A new student seeking scholarship aid through any of the scholarships awarded by Cornell University listed below may become an applicant by filing a single application on a blank obtainable on request from the Office of Admissions. The application is handled through the College Scholarship Service, which centrally processes scholarship applications for a large number of universities so that information provided for Cornell is available for use by all other participating institutions as well. His application then becomes valid for any scholarship open to Cornell students generally, for any scholarship awarded by the School of Hotel Administration, and for such scholarships at other institutions as he may indicate.

The formal application is due at Cornell not later than January 15 of the year of admission. Candidates must take the Scholastic Aptitude Test not later than the February sitting.

In the awards, consideration is given to the financial situation of the student and his family and to his ability as evidenced by his preparatory school record, his scholastic aptitude test scores, and the interview.

Prospective students are eligible also for a number of scholarships awarded by non-Cornell agencies. Some of them are described on pages 121-122.

New York State offers various types of financial assistance to qualified college students who are State residents. Information may be obtained by writing: Regents Examination and Scholarship Center, New York State Education Department, Albany, New York 12201.

Students already enrolled in the School may obtain scholarship application blanks at the School office. In making the award to continuing students, consideration is given to need as evidenced by the family's financial situation and by the student's scholastic record as well as his over-all promise.

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED BY THE SCHOOL

THE HORWATH AND HORWATH SCHOLARSHIP, founded by the accounting firm of Horwath and Horwath of New York City, entitles the holder to $400 for the year and recognizes particularly scholarship in the field of accounting.

THE NEW JERSEY STATE HOTEL ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIPS are supported by an annual grant of $400 from the New Jersey State Hotel Association. In the award, preference is given to residents of New Jersey.

THE KOEHL, LANDIS, AND LANDAN SCHOLARSHIP is an annual grant of $200 donated by the advertising firm of that name.

THE DUNCAN HINES FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS. The trustees of the Duncan Hines Foundation donate $1,000 for scholarships for the benefit of students "engaged in special studies in foods, food values, dietetics, culinary arts, and similar subjects."

THE JOHN SHERRY SCHOLARSHIP was established in recognition of Mr. Sherry's many years of voluntary service on the faculty.

THE LUCIUS M. BOOMER SCHOLARSHIP, representing the royalties of Mr. Boomer's book, Hotel Management, is available through the generosity of Mrs. Boomer for award to students from Norway, her native country.

THE FRANK A. MCKOWNE SCHOLARSHIP, originally established by the School itself in memory of Mr. McKowne and in recognition of his many years of service as chairman of the Committee on Education of the American Hotel Association, was endowed in 1952 by the Statler Foundation, of which he was for many years a trustee. Grants are made according to need in amounts of up to $1,500 a year.

THE McCORMICK AND COMPANY SCHOLARSHIP is supported by an annual grant of $600 from McCormick and Company of Baltimore. It is awarded to students in need of financial assistance who, in respect to superior character, interest, and scholarship, give evidence of being worthy recipients.

THE HOTEL ASSOCIATION OF NEW YORK CITY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS, established by that association as memorials to its deceased members, are supported by annual grants of $1,000. The awards are open to needy and worthy students from the area of metropolitan New York. Preference is given to children of hotel workers.

THE ELLSWORTH MILTON STATLER SCHOLARSHIPS were established by the Statler Foundation in memory of the founder of Hotels Statler Company, who was the donor, through the Foundation, of Statler Hall. The scholarships are awarded to promising needy students and carry an annual stipend of $1,500 to $2,500 each, according to the need.

THE WILLIAM W. MALLESON SCHOLARSHIP was established in recognition of the voluntary service on the faculty of William W. Malleison, Jr., of Skytop Lodge, Pennsylvania.

THE PITTENGER SCHOLARSHIP was created from a bequest of $3,000 by the late George W. Pittenger, for many years an officer of the American Hotel Association. The award is open to a worthy student from Switzerland.

THE CALLIS SCHOLARSHIP, initiated through the generosity of Mr. H. B. Callis, long-time friend of the School, in the name of his two sons, E. C. Callis '42, and H. B. Callis, Jr., '49, is supported by the income from an endowment of over $10,000.

THE FRANK A. K. BOLAND SCHOLARSHIP in the amount of $500 a year was established by an initial gift of that amount from Mr. Boland, an attorney for many years for the American Hotel Association.

THE CHRISTOPHER RYDER HOUSE SCHOLARSHIP is supported by an annual grant of $200 from Donald F. Kastner '43 and recognizes well-rounded participation in student activities.

THE GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE COMPANY GRANTS-IN-AID are made available through an annual contribution of $1,000. The awards may be in the form either of a loan or an outright grant and are to aid any worthy students who may, through unforeseen circumstances, find themselves in need.

THE TEA COUNCIL SCHOLARSHIPS, which are granted in varying amounts according to need and merit, were established by an initial grant of $10,000 from the Tea Council of the United States.

THE UNITED STATES BREWERS ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIPS, which are granted in varying amounts according to need and merit, have been maintained by annual grants of $20,000 from the United States Brewers Association, Inc.

THE DORADO BEACH SCHOLARSHIPS (five), gifts of Laurance S. Rockefeller, who developed that resort, carry an annual stipend up to $2,500 and, when needed, up to $1,000 travel expenses over a four-year period. Open to candidates who are native to or have strong ties with Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and Hawaii, and who evidence a serious interest in hotel administration.

THE EASTERN ALL-ABOARD CLUB MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP provides a $400 scholarship. Preference is given to candidates from families connected with the railroad industry.

THE SHERATON CORPORATION OF AMERICA SCHOLARSHIP represents a contribution of $250 for each graduate of the School of Hotel Administration who takes employment with that company during the previous year.

THE RAYMOND M. CANTWELL LOAN FUND was established by Mr. Cantwell '52, with a check of $1,500 he received as winner of an Idea Bank Contest conducted by Admiral Sales Corporation. The money is available on easy terms.

THE CORNING GLASS WORKS FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS, originally established in 1960, have now been endowed through a Centennial Campaign gift and are awarded on the basis of merit and need.

THE SCHOLARSHIP OF THE WASHINGTON CHAPTER OF THE CORNELL SOCIETY OF HOTELMEN was initiated by contributions from members of the Chapter. In the award, preference will be given to candidates from the Washington area.

THE TEXAS LONE STAR CLUB MANAGERS' SCHOLARSHIP in the amount of $250 is awarded to students interested in club management. Preference is given to students from Texas.

THE ADRIAN PHILLIPS SCHOLARSHIP was established by the Hotel Sales Management Association to honor Mr. Phillips, their Executive Vice President, who conducted a course in hotel sales promotion at Cornell University for twenty-five years. Preference is given to applicants on the basis of their interest in sales as well as their need.

THE TAYLOR FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS are provided by the Taylor Scholarship Foundation, established and directed during his lifetime by the late S. Gregory Taylor, former president of the Hotel St. Moritz in New York City, and later directed by his brother, Charles G. Taylor, and presently by the latter's widow, Marica A. Taylor. Awards are made to outstanding students on the basis of scholarly achievement, evidence of high moral character, promise of leadership in the hotel and restaurant field, and financial need. Awards up to a maximum of $3,000 annually are determined by the individual applicant's resources and needs. All students accepted by or currently enrolled in the School of Hotel Administration at Cornell are eligible, but preference is given to those of Greek descent.

In keeping with Mr. Kilborn's practice of sponsoring immigrants to this country, the award is to be made to a needy foreign student who might otherwise be unable to attend Cornell University.

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED BY OTHER AGENCIES

The following scholarships, open to students or prospective students in the School of Hotel Administration at Cornell University, are awarded by the agencies indicated. The special procedures for applying should be noted.

THE H. J. HEINZ COMPANY presents each year to qualified graduating high school seniors five scholarships of $1,000 each to be used for tuition and financial assistance at any accredited college or university offering a four-year course in restaurant administration. Applicants will be judged on scholastic ability, aptitude and interest in food service, ability to get along with people, leadership qualifications, character and professional promise, and financial need. Applications should be filed not later than March 1 of the year of admission with the Educational Department of the National Restaurant Association, 1530 North Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60610.

THE THOMAS D. GREEN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP was established by the American Hotel Association in 1957 to aid young people seeking university training in hotel administration. Applications should be filed not later than March 1 of the year of enrollment with the Director, Education Department, American Hotel and Motel Association, 221 West 57th Street, New York, New York 10019.

THE ARTHUR L. ROBERTS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND was established in memory of the late Arthur L. Roberts, who for many years was one of the country's outstanding hotelmen. The scholarship, awarded to a student enrolled in the School of Hotel Administration at Cornell, will provide a maximum of $2,000 per year for four years. This award is open to applicants who are residents of the state of Minnesota, or to a child or grandchild of a former employee of Mr. Roberts or of the Arthur L. Roberts Hotel Company. Awards are made by a selection committee appointed by the trustees of the fund.

GRANTS AND ASSISTANTSHIPS

In addition to the scholarships named above, the School has funds in the total amount of $20,000 for grants-in-aid to deserving and meritorious applicants. Hotel students are further eligible for the general University scholarships (see the section above concerning applications for the various scholarships). These include the Cornell National Scholarships, carrying values ranging as high as full tuition plus $900 a year, the University Undergraduate Scholarships, $200 a year, and the State of New York Scholarships, ranging from $200 to $350 a year, open to New York State residents.

Upperclass students ranking high in scholarship are eligible for appointment as student assistants. These positions pay up to $1,500 a year and represent excellent experience opportunities.

Loans

Loans to promising students in need of assistance have been made possible by gifts to the University. It is a general policy to grant loans only to students who have completed at least one term at Cornell. Application should be made at the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid, Day Hall.

Short-term loans in small amounts may be arranged through the Secretary of the Cornell Society of Hotelmen, Statler Hall W-104.

Ye Hosts, recognition society of the School of Hotel Administration, also has established a loan fund for students in need of temporary financial assistance.
